Xi's visit showed off Beijing's new diplomatic swagger and gave a political lift to Putin just days after an international arrest warrant was issued against him | P14

NSA against five aides, Amritpal still on the run

HARPREET BAJWA & YESHI SELI
@ Chandigarh/New Delhi

WITH pro-Khalistani rabble-rouser and self-styled preacher Amritpal Singh continuing to be elusive, the Punjab Police on Monday invoked the stringent National Security Act (NSA) against five of his close associates. Amritpal could also face charges under the NSA after his arrest, said Inspector General of Police Sukhchain Singh Gill.

Four of those booked under the NSA were shifted to the Dibrugarh Central Jail in Assam on Sunday to isolate them from the rest of their associates. The fifth is Amritpal's uncle Harjit Singh, who surrendered on Sunday night near Jalandhar.

The Punjab government also extended the suspension of mobile internet services till Tuesday noon. "We have evidence that the close associates of Amritpal were forming an Anandpur Khalsa Fauj (AKF). Bullet proof jackets with AKF written on them were recovered from his house," Gill said.

The police suspect the accused had foreign funding as they were using hawala channels for cash transactions. "Besides, we suspect an ISI angle in it," Gill added.

While Punjab continues to be peaceful, small pockets of protests against the police action emerged abroad. Khalistani supporters vandalised the Indian High Commission in London, attacked the Indian Consulate in San Francisco and staged a protest outside the Australian Parliament in Canberra.

India conveyed its strong protest to US Charge d'Affaires Elizabeth Jones over the vandalism of the property of the Consulate General of India in San Francisco in a meeting with her, the Ministry of External Affairs said.

Classes 5, 8 exam: SC to hear plea on March 27

DONNA EVA @ Bengaluru

HIGH tension and confusion prevailed among parents, students and schools under the state board syllabus, after Classes 5 and 8 assessments faced another delay with the case scheduled to be heard by the Supreme Court.

The apex court on Monday said it would hear a petition regarding Classes 5 and 8 assessments on March 27 — the same day the exams are scheduled to begin — and there is a chance they may be further delayed.

Parents and schools are hoping the issue is not further delayed as it can pose problems for the students.

"There is a lot of confusion regarding the assessment. The government has said the assessments will be based on the Kalika Chetharike programme. What has been taught in government schools and private schools is different. If the child sits for an exam where the syllabus is completely different, it will pose problems. We hope that the assessments are cancelled," said BN Yoganand, president of the Karnataka Private Schools' Parents Association Coordination Committee.

Rahul: ₹3k for jobless grads, ₹1,500 for diploma holders

'10L youth will be given jobs and 2.5L vacancies filled if Cong comes to power'

AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge and Congress MP Rahul Gandhi greet their supporters in Belagavi on Monday | EXPRESS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

FORMER AICC president Rahul Gandhi on Monday blamed the Modi government for rising unemployment and said the Congress will provide a monthly allowance of Rs 3,000 to unemployed degree-holders and Rs 1,500 to unemployed diploma-holders for two years if the party comes to power in Karnataka.

The allowance for unemployed youth is the fourth poll promise of Congress. Earlier, it had announced a monthly allowance of Rs 2,000 to women heads of families and 10 kg of rice to each BPL family in the state. Besides, the party has promised 200 units of free electricity under the Griha Jyoti Scheme if Congress comes to power in the state.

Addressing the Congress party's Yuva Kranthi rally in Belagavi, Rahul said that during his Bharat Jodo Yatra, hundreds of youngsters complained to him about lack of jobs in Karnataka because of corruption.

"Corruption is rampant in the country because the Union government extends all its benefits only to its two to three "friends". At the Parliament House, I spoke about industrialist Adani, stating that all businesses, industries and projects, including airports and ports, are being allotted to him. The same thing is happening in Karnataka. Only a few people are being helped by the BJP government here. This is one of the reasons why corruption is rampant in the state," Rahul said.

He said if his party comes to power in Karnataka, 10 lakh youth will be given jobs within five years and 2.5 lakh vacancies filled. P6

MHA wants CBI probe against Mander's NGO

AMIT MUKHERJEE @ New Delhi

THE Union Home Ministry has recommended a CBI inquiry into alleged FCRA violation by Aman Biradari, an NGO run by former IAS officer and activist Harsh Mander.

According to sources, the ministry wing that monitors foreign funding to NGOs operating in India, has detected non-compliance by the NGO. As per norms, all NGOs operating in India that receive foreign funding need to register under the FCRA guidelines, follow certain disclosure norms and obtain clearance from the home ministry. Sources said Aman Biradari received crores of rupees in overseas funding from organisations, including a well-known UK-based donor and a leading international organisation working for poverty alleviation and social injustice. However, there were alleged non-compliance and non-adherence of the requisite disclosure norms.

Harsh Mander

Mander, who was a member of the National Advisory Council headed by Congress leader Sonia Gandhi during the UPA regime, had faced a probe by the ED in September 2021 for alleged financial irregularities.

The ED action was initiated following a probe in October 2020, when the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR) detected serious violations by two children's home run by Mander's NGO.

Make offenders pay for flex removal: HC to BBMP

BBMP counsel informs court that teams have been formed in each ward, and the officers are removing unauthorised hoardings

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BASED on a compliance report, the Karnataka High Court on Monday observed that the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike's (BBMP) action against illegal hoardings and banners are not stringent and expressed unhappiness that tax payers' money is being used to remove them instead of collecting the amount from the offenders.

"We were constrained to form this opinion that though BBMP finds the number of illegal banners between 488 and 2,525, the complaints or FIRs filed are only in single or double digits, with a maximum of 30 complaints. Number of unauthorised flex/banners/hoardings identified in the city after January 2023 is 9,570, whereas the number of complaints filed is 80 and FIR is only 53... Why the authority is shy to lodge complaints and FIRs," asked the Division Bench of Chief Justice Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Ashok S Kinagi.

The report was filed after directions were issued by the court based on a PIL filed by Mayigegowda in 2017.

BBMP counsel submitted that sufficient personnel and machinery are required to remove unauthorised hoardings, flexes and banners.

When the court asked if the corporation has made any attempt to recover the amount of removing illegal flexes and hoardings, the counsel informed the court that till now, no such attempt has been made. However, the counsel submitted that penalty has been levied on 41 offenders in Mahadevapura Zone.

The court observed that if the expenses are incurred by the corporation, which is actually tax payers' money, it is not a welcome step.

Meanwhile, the BBMP counsel informed the court that teams have been formed in each ward, and the officers are removing unauthorised hoardings. However, the local politicians and their supporters are again putting those up in the same place or someplace else. The officers are also removing that. The posters and hoardings increase during elections and festive seasons.

Response sought

The court sought a response from the state government and the BBMP on three key issues raised by amicus curiae Vikram Huilgol. First, the directions issued by the court to the state government for directions to all municipal councils and corporations to take action against illegal hoardings, banners, and flexes.

Second, most of the materials used for banners and flex hoardings contain plastic and dumping them might lead to health hazards.

Third, if a helpline has been established. This would involve citizens, and help the corporation or other civic agencies to take action soon.

LOKAYUKTA PLAINT

Ramesh claims TDR scam in Siddu's rule

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

BJP leader NR Ramesh on Monday alleged that a TDR scam worth thousands of crores took place during the then chief minister Siddaramaiah's rule.

Filing a complaint with the Lokayukta, Ramesh alleged that 40.09 acres of land in Kodiyala Karenahalli in Magadi was used to set up a solid waste management unit. In exchange, transferable development rights (TDR) were issued within BBMP limits. The TDR is worth over Rs 2,000 crore and it is illegal, he added.

He alleged that the TDR mafia joined hands with officials from the Bengaluru-Mysuru Infrastructure Corridor Planning Authority and BBMP and got the TDR done by violating rules.

He said that former member-secretary Shashikumar pushed for the TDR in Bengaluru when he was heading BMICPA. BBMP officials, including its lawyer, collided and prepared the TDR to facilitate the mafia which purchased the land from farmers for a few lakhs before the solid waste processing plant was set up.

Palike's lawyer Devendrappa did not raise any objection in court and indirectly facilitated it, he alleged.

"TDR can be issued for areas within certain limits. TDR for Kodiyala Karenahalli cannot be issued in BBMP as the village is over 40 km from palike limits. I hold Shashikumar, Palike authorities and TDR mafia for the scam. 40 acres is 26,44,353 sqft. Each sqft costs thousands of rupees in BBMP limits. The Urban Development Department should have verified and stopped the process, instead it issued the TDR orders. I am going to file a PIL in this case. I also demand a CBI probe," he said.

25 KSRTC e-buses will ply to five more cities

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA State Road Transport Corporation (KSRTC) will operate 25 electric buses from Bengaluru to Madikeri, Virajpet, Davangere, Shivamogga and Chikkamagaluru. CM Basavaraj Bommai flagged off the buses here on Monday.

The overwhelming response to the Bengaluru-Mysuru e-bus prompted KSRTC to launch the operations. KSRTC MD Anbu Kumar told TNIE, "After the success of the Bengaluru-Mysuru route, we are expanding our operations on five inter-district routes too. We launched 25 e-buses on Monday, and by April, we will totally have 50 e-buses in operation."

Charging infrastructure has been set up at Bengaluru, Mysuru, Madikeri, Virajpet, Davangere, Shivamogga and Chikkamagaluru, and the buses are expected to run 300km on a single charge, he said. On ticket price, Kumar said fares will be higher than ordinary bus fares, but less than the premium Airavata buses. Service is expected soon.

BMTC bus to Chikkaballapur

Travellers between Bengaluru and Chikkaballapur can hop into a BMTC bus from Tuesday. After KSRTC gave its nod to BMTC to operate inter-district services between Bengaluru and Chikkaballapur, BMTC announced that it will operate air-conditioned services, with route number V-298MN from Kempegowda Bus Station to Chikkaballpur Bus Stand via Hebbal, Yelahanka, Rani Circle/Devanahalli.

Ex-corporators flex muscle, hope to fill MLAs' shoes

MOHAMMED YACOOB @ Bengaluru

FORMER BBMP corporators are turning into a thorn in the side for sitting MLAs and aspiring candidates, just ahead of elections. The protest against Shivajinagar MLA Rizwan Arshad, and burning of his poster is not an isolated incident. In many assembly seats, ex-corporators and their supporters have become a pain point for sitting MLAs and aspiring candidates.

For example, Domlur's former corporator Lakshminarayana, an independent who supported the Congress, is now throwing his weight behind BJP leader M Goutham Kumar, who is aspiring to contest against MLA N A Haris in Shanthinagar. Not just him, Shanthalanagar's former corporator Shiva Kumar is also aiming to unseat Haris from Shanthinagar.

Similarly, former corporators H Ravindra and Umesh Shetty are eyeing Vijayanagar, and lobbying for the BJP ticket -- in their respective capacities -- to contest against sitting MLA Krishnappa. In KR Puram, MLA Byrathi Basavaraj's once loyal aide and former corporator Manjunath is working against the MLA in HAL ward. N Chandrappa Reddy, BJP leader and former corporator from Konena Agrahara, declared he will not work for MLA S Raghu in the polls. He alleged that the MLA had insulted him and also blocked ward development funds.

In BTM assembly segment, ex-corporator Devadas rebelled against MLA Ramalinga Reddy and is supporting the BJP. Devadas contested against Reddy in 2018, and later joined the BJP. Former Congress corporators Sampath Raj, AR Zakir and their supporters will make things difficult for Pulikeshi Nagar MLA Akhandasrinivasa Murthy. The equation between the MLA and former corporators changed after the August 12, 2020, riots and attacks on DJ Halli and KJ Halli police stations. In Rajajinagar, MLA S Suresh Kumar may face an uphill task, with Bengaluru BJP chief Shivanalli Manju aspiring to contest, and reportedly has the support of former BJP corporators. For Congress, former BBMP mayor Padmavathi and Rajajinagar corporator Krishnamurthy are already campaigning to defeat Kumar.

Autorickshaw drivers spar with police personnel, during a protest against the state government demanding a ban on white board bike taxis, in Bengaluru on Monday | SHASHIDHAR BYRAPPA

Auto strike evokes mixed response

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE 24-hour strike called by auto unions in protest against the operation of white board and e-bike taxis evoked a mixed response. Autos were seen plying in the city as usual. All those auto-drivers who attempted to gherao the Chief Minister's official residence were lathi-charged and taken into preventive custody. During the lathi-charge, it is alleged that Manjunath, convenor of Bangalore Auto Drivers Union's Federation, was attacked and his eyes were hurt.

Speaking to TNIE, Manjunath alleged, "Auto drivers who were heading towards the official residence of the Chief Minister were stopped. When they tried to resist by holding each other's arms, police lathicharged us and my eyes were hurt and have swollen. I have received treatment at Minto Eye Hospital and doctors have advised rest for four days."

Replying to a question on the mixed response for the strike call, Manjunath said, "There are nearly two lakh autos in the city. We gave a short-notice for the strike. We relayed more on social media to spread the message. We should have ideally visited each and every auto stand in the city, especially the ones on the outskirts, but couldn't, as we had very less time and that has evoked mixed response to the strike call."

However, there were people who were affected by the auto strike. Some auto drivers exploited the strike and charged exorbitantly. "I wanted to go to Banashankari from JC Road. I paid Rs 400, which on other days would not even touch Rs 100," rued Prabha, an MNC employee. Members of the auto union met CM's Principal Secretary Manjunath Prasad on Monday and submitted their demands. They said Prasad informed them that CM Basavaraj Bommai is aware of the problems of the auto-drivers and has responded positively on imposing a ban on bike taxis.

NAMMA B'LURU HABBA TO CELEBRATE CITY'S VIBRANT JOURNEY

ENS @ Bengaluru

IN a bid to showcase Bengaluru's culture and its evolution into a true cosmopolitan city, the state government will host the Namma Bengaluru Habba, on March 25 and 26.

The event will be held for two days at Cubbon Park and around Vidhana Soudha, where dance, drama, art, traditional and cultural events will be organised, said Revenue Minister R Ashoka on Monday.

Speaking on the sidelines of the launch of the Bengaluru Habba logo, Ashoka said this year, the Habba will be held on a small scale due to paucity of time, but from the following year, it is expected to be held on a grand scale like the Mysuru Dasara. "On March 25, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai will inaugurate the cultural celebrations at Vidhana Soudha. The statues of Kempegowda and Basaveshwara will be unveiled there on March 26. Union Home Minister Amit Shah will be present for the celebrations on March 26. The aim of the festival is to showcase the culture and transformation of Bengaluru. All those coming to the city should become Bengalureans and take pride in its culture," he said.

Officials of the Kannada and Culture Department, who are organising the Bengaluru Habba, said from the next year, it will be held in January, on the first Saturday and Sunday of the Sankranti week. "This Bengaluru Habba was being planned for long, but because of permissions and fund issues, it was delayed. Now the guidelines have been formed, according to which, a committee will be constituted six months before the next Habba, which will have to ensure that all arrangements are in place. Since Bengaluru is a cosmopolitan city, other states will also be a part of the festival. So far, the culture of Odisha, Gujarat, Punjab, Assam and Kerala have been included," an official said.

PETER VIDAL

21ST March : We recently experienced a powerful Moon-Mars-Pluto pattern. That means that many new babies could be profoundly passionate. I don't mean that they'll always be falling in love, but that they will always be striving for a better world, a planet of peace and justice. The trouble is, they won't be very practical - and will usually need a little help!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
This could be quite an emotional day, with an emphasis on domestic security as the question of the moment. Over the next forty-eight hours you will once again be asserting your independence, but there could be many mixed messages, and a high chance of misunderstandings.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Good communication is absolutely essential if you are to make a success of both personal and professional plans today. It's a fantastic day for anyone attending interviews or making important proposals, just as long as you are prepared for the unexpected!

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You may pay more attention to financial affairs, but should be aware that money has certain psychological and symbolic connections. It may well be that if you should be tempted to go on a spending spree, it's because something is not going so well in the rest of your life.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The Moon is in an extremely strong position today, and that's good for you. However, it has to be said that there's a chance of confusion, muddle and mistakes, even though it may be tempered by bursts of supreme romantic inspiration. Just steer clear of awkward commitments, or any initiatives which could back-fire.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
It could do you a power of good to keep yourself to yourself for a couple of days. If other people are trying to force you into a premature decision, feel free to delay and prevaricate for as long as you can. If you do make snap decisions, you could be letting other people in for trouble a little way down the line, so take sensible precautions.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
If you're taking time off for lunch, you're making the right move. It just so happens that the most unpredictable planetary alignments of the day urge you to pamper yourself, if only to avoid the perils of tension and stress. You should also leave yourself open to unexpected developments.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
It will pay to take work seriously, but it could be love, or social engagements, which are most on your mind. Although there may have to be some changes, this definitely seems to be a good period for a reunion. Rather than sitting around waiting for the phone to ring, you can take the lead and get in touch.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You may consider reviving professional plans which have been ignored or left on the back burner. In fact, this is about the best thing you can do at the moment. If you're not currently at work, you should find any way you can to gain respect in the community.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Financial plans should proceed satisfactorily, although domestic costs could increase before long. If there is to be an extravagant outburst, then you'll need to take care and keep an eye on changing prices. Actually, though, emotional risks are as likely as monetary ones!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You'll have to listen to partners very intently indeed, even though they may sometimes say completely the opposite from what they mean! Don't feel bound to commitments which have outlived their purpose. There is little to be gained by hanging on to the past at the expense of the present.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
It should be business as normal today - or so you might imagine. There is a much greater than average chance that you will be forced to consider completely new factors, especially at work. But, as soon as you think you've found the answer, the questions change!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Take your pleasures where you find them. There is much to be said for taking some time off, or, if you absolutely must work, for trying to be as inventive, innovative and creative as possible. You can't be pinned down today, but that's just so typical!

CENTRE CAN'T SCARE CONG USING AGENCIES: KHARGE

AICC chief claims Centre troubling Rahul, says nobody is allowed to question govt

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

AICC president Mallikarjun Kharge on Monday hit out at the Union Government accusing it for troubling Wayanad MP Rahul Gandhi needlessly over his statement on harassment of women made 46 days ago during the Bharat Jodo Yatra in Kashmir.

Responding to Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Kharge in Hindi said, "Modiji, aap koshish karo hame mitti me dabaneki, lekin hum beej hain baar baar ugte rehte hain. (Mr Modi, you try pressing us under soil, but we will continue to sprout like a seed every time)."

Addressing the Congress' Yuva Kranti rally in Belagavi on Monday, Kharge challenged the Centre to put the Congress leaders in jail while criticising the way the police came to the doors of Rahul in New Delhi to question him.

He said that the Centre cannot scare the Congress leaders through the Directorate of Enforcement, CBI or other Central agencies. "If you want to put us (Congress leaders) in jail, do it. We are ready for everything. Rahul Gandhi, most of all, will never be scared of you," he added.

"In Karnataka, the contractors association wrote to Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah complaining that the State Government is demanding 40% commission for works. There is a proof for it and why are Central agencies not investigating into the rampant corruption in Karnataka? For all the works, the contractors are demanded huge money," he alleged.

Calling the Modi government full of lies, Kharge said when he and Rahul questioned the Central leadership about the Adani group in the Parliament, their speeches were removed from the records. "That is the state of democracy in the country where nobody is allowed to point out mistakes and the question the government," he said.

REMOTE CONTROL JIBE

Taking a dig at the BJP leaders for saying that he was being remote controlled by someone else, Mallikarjun Kharge shot back asking as to who was the remote control of BJP national president J P Nadda. "Who is controlling the BJP president?" he asked.

'Yatra spread message of brotherhood'

A large number of people with whom he interacted during the Bharat Jodo Yatra said Karnataka has the most corrupt government in the country and that it is a "40 per cent commission" government, he said. The contractors' association of Karnataka wrote to Prime Minister Narendra Modi about a 40 per cent commission being sought by those in the government to clear their bills. Even the association of schools wrote to the PM about rampant corruption in the government. Unfortunately, the PM did not respond to their letters. Job scams have taken place in most of the government departments in Karnataka under the BJP rule, he alleged.

Referring to the scandal involving BJP MLA Madal Virupakshappa's son, Rahul said that though huge sums of money were recovered from his house, the state government is unwilling to investigate it. In fact, the government is protecting the MLA, he charged.

The Wayanad MP said the Bharat Jodo Yatra has sent a message that this country belongs to all and not to a select few. The yatra also spread the message of brotherhood across the country, he added.

URI GOWDA-NANJE GOWDA ROW

Munirathna drops plans to make movie

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

KANNADA film producer and Horticulture Minister N Munirathna, who had decided to produce a Kannada movie 'Uri Gowda - Nanje Gowda' on the soldiers who arguably killed Mysuru ruler Tipu Sultan, withdrew his decision after meeting Adichunchanagiri Mutt seer Nirmalanandanatha Swamiji in Mandya on Monday. Sources said the Vokkaliga seer slammed the minister for deciding to make the movie on the warriors without any documents or records about their involvement in Tipu's killing. The film producer-turned-politician recently registered the movie title with the Karnataka Film Chamber of Commerce under his production house Vrushabhavathi Productions.

Munirathna had announced that the movie will hit the sets on May 18. As it triggered a controversy, the seer summoned Munirathna to the mutt branch office at Vishwamanava Education Institute at Kommerahalli in Mandya and took him to task.

Coming out of the meeting, Munirathna told reporters that he has dropped the plan to make the movie. "I had decided to produce a big film on Uri Gowda and Dodda Nanje Gowda. I did not have any intention of hurting the sentiments of the people. I was not doing this as I am in BJP. I was collecting documents regarding the warriors. But as the seer said there would be a controversy, I decided to drop the project," he said.

Later, the Swamiji told reporters that the movie could hurt the sentiments of the Vokkaliga community as there has been no historical records and clarity on the characters. "I asked the minister not to produce the movie. There should be proper documents for doing a historical movie and the movie should make people remember history. But there are no historical documents or evidences about Uri Gowda and Nanje Gowda. A fictional movie will damage the identity of Vokkaligas," he added. The seer said he also explained the history to BJP leaders.

BJP creating fictitious characters: Shivakumar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Belagavi

Karnataka Pradesh Congress Committee (KPCC) president DK Shivakumar hit out at the State Government for creating "false narratives and fictitious characters" to distort history related to Tipu Sultan and said the BJP and its leaders are misleading people by indulging in communal tactics in the run up to the April/May Assembly polls in Karnataka. Shivakumar appealed to Nirmalanand Swamiji, a noted seer, to take a lead in opposing the government's attempts to distort and change history without any logical reasons.

Speaking at a press conference in Belagavi on Monday, Shivakumar said the BJP attempted to change the history of personalities like Lord Basavanna, Kuvempu, BR Ambedkar and several other renowned persons but in vain.

"Tipu Sultan died more than 200 years ago and now BJP leaders like Dr CN Ashwath Narayan, CT Ravi and a few others are trying to bring out a book on Tipu Sultan by adding false narratives and stories in it. Teachers of Ashwath Narayan and CT Ravi must be wondering as to what history lessons they taught to their students after watching the way history is being distorted," Shivakumar quipped. "Unfortunately, the BJP leaders were creating false stories and characters to demean Tipu Sultan," he said.

To prevent the BJP leaders from creating false history, Shivakumar called upon Nirmalananda Swamiji to take a lead and boycott the leaders and parties which were trying to mislead the society by resorting to such tactics ahead of the elections.

The Kanakapura MLA also requested the seers of all the communities to rise up against the BJP's ongoing tirade and said the distortion of history would have disastrous consequences.

Rahul is no comparison to Modi, Cong will bite the dust in Karnataka too: BSY

BENGALURU: Former chief minister BS Yediyurappa here on Monday took exception to comparing Congress leader Rahul Gandhi with Prime Minister Narendra Modi . When pointed out that Rahul is also visiting Karnatakas like Modi ahead of the Assembly polls, Yediyurappa mocked Rahul, saying he is no comparison to Modi. "Rahul is not at all equal to Modi as a leader. Congress lost the elections held for three North Eastern states (Nagaland, Tripura and Meghalaya) without proper leadership and it will meet the same fate in Karnataka too. I do not think Congress has a future as BJP will win 140 seats in the state," he told reporters. There will come a time when people have to search for Congress, he said. ENS

Roshan Baig all set to join BJP

BANSY KALAPPA
@ Bengaluru

FORMER minister and seven-time MLA R Roshan Baig is all set to join BJP ahead of 2023 assembly elections, according to sources.

Although Baig was not available for comment, sources close to him told TNIE that he may join BJP anytime and contest the assembly elections if given an opportunity.

However, Baig is keen on fielding his son Ruman Baig, who has been helping him in his constituency for over 15 years, from Shivajinagar if things go according to his plans, the sources said. The reason for this speculation is "former minister Roshan Baig Sahab" was officially invited to BJP's "Sufi Samvaad" convened by Jamaat Ulema-e-Hind, president Maulana Suhaib Qasm.

The invitees also included leaders from the Sikh and Christian communities and Baig participated in the convention in Delhi. While not all invitees to the convention were wearing the saffron shawl, Baig was seen wearing it. His supporters claimed that the charges against Baig have been cleared and is seeking to make a new beginning in the BJP.

Baig had been in political wilderness after he criticised Congress leaders - the then state in-charge K C Venugopal, CLP leader Siddaramaiah and former PCC president Dinesh Gundu Rao. The Congress issued a show cause notice to which he responded by resigning from the party. Although Baig was in the Youth Congress, he began his electoral career with the erstwhile Janata party.

Cong guarantee cards all bogus: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hubballi

TERMING as "bogus" the fourth guarantee card announced by the Congress, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai ridiculed the party, saying "lies are the inherent character of the grand old party".

Bommai on Monday said the party's promises in Rajasthan, Chhattisgarh and Jharkhand have not been fulfilled, even after it came to power in these states. He said he would soon release a list of the Congress' bogus promises. Congress leaders are making tall promises to hoodwink the people of Karnataka, but the party's tactics have been understood, he said.

"To give an instance, the Siddaramaiah government reduced free rice given to each person to 5kgs, and later increased it to 7kgs as elections approached. Now, Congress is again promising 10kgs, according to the election policy. Congress leaders are making promises which cannot be implemented," he said.

In his remark against former AICC president Rahul Gandhi's alleged anti-India comments on foreign soil, Bommai said, "How could one expect affection and commitment towards Karnataka from a person who speaks ill against the nation on foreign soil?"

Leaders dispute party survey, say Siddu will win Kolar

V VELAYUDHAM @ Kolar

A survey conducted by Congress poll strategist Sunil Kanugolu and his team, predicting a defeat for former chief minister Siddaramaiah in Kolar, has been questioned by Congress leaders from Kolar. They said they have been working for Siddaramaiah's victory for the last two months and he should win comfortably from here.

MLC Anil Kumar, who is one of the members in charge of Siddaramaiah's poll campaign in Kolar, said information indicates that voters are in favour of Siddaramaiah.

Kolar sitting MLA K Srinivasa Gowda, who had offered to sacrifice his seat, warned that if Siddaramaiah chooses any constituency other than Kolar, he will retire from politics. He denied having any information on the high command asking Siddaramaiah to choose Varuna.

"I want Siddaramaiah to win from Kolar and become a chief minister," he said, adding that he will not try to persuade the senior leader as he is confident that Siddaramaiah will contest from Kolar.

Praveen Gowda, a KPCC member, who is heading a team of Youth Congress, said Congress leaders and workers are working to ensure Siddaramaiah's victory in Kolar. "If the high command is in doubt, another survey should be conducted. Youth Congress leaders will mail to the high command, asking them to allow Siddaramaiah to contest from here," he added.

A senior Congress leader raised doubts over the methodology used by Kanugolu. "The party has been gaining strength over the last two months as voters are expecting Siddaramaiah to contest. If the high command decides to field another candidate, it will be a difficult situation for the party," he added.

From Sunday, Congress leaders held meetings and decided to meet Siddaramaiah at his residence in Bengaluru to appeal to him to contest from Kolar. Party sources told The New Indian Express that one reason Siddaramaiah decided not to contest from Kolar was that party leaders would be busy with their own constituencies leaving him without any backing.

Azaan row: Bajrang Dal, VHP workers sprinkle gomutra at DC's office

ENS @ Shivamogga

VISHWA Hindu Parishad (VHP) and Bajrang Dal workers on Monday sprinkled gomutra in what they claimed to be a purification ritual of the platform at the DC's office where a Muslim youth recited azaan (a Muslim call for prayer) while protesting against the statement of BJP MLA KS Eshwarappa on azaan.

Even though the police tried to stop the VHP and Bajrang Dal workers, they managed to sprinkle the gomutra.

Last week, the police booked a preventive case against the youth who recited azaan during a protest. The VHP and Bajrang Dal workers alleged that the azaan was recited by "communal forces" to disturb peace in the city. They demanded action against those who are behind the incident. The workers alleged that the rights given under the Constitution have been misused. They also protested the release of the youth.

Police try to stop VHP and Bajrang Dal workers from sprinkling gomutra

Bajrang Dal leader Rajesh Gowda said, "Everybody has the right to protest. But, by reciting azaan in front of the DC's office, they showed communal fanaticism. This is not a place to recite azaan. Hence, we purified the place."

The youth had recited azaan at a protest last Friday against MLA Eshwarappa over his remarks on azaan. The police warned the youth and let him off. The video of the youth reciting azaan was shared on social media platforms.

ANIMAL ACTIVISTS FUME OVER GOAT SACRIFICE WITH TEETH

Police omit temple authorities in FIR

MOHAMMED YACOOB
@Bengaluru

ANIMAL rights activists have accused Byappanahalli police of not naming the accused in a case, in which two persons tore apart a goat with their teeth at Angala Parameshwari temple, on Sunday.

The alleged incident took place on the temple premises at Krishna Nagar, near New Byappanahalli. The activists allege that two men tore apart a goat that was meant for sacrifice, as part of a ritual, with their teeth.

According to Harish KB, a member of the Society For Prevention of Cruelty To Animals (SPCA), his friend Nitin Jain, also a member of SPCA, noticed this act.

"He called me and shared the video. I asked him to file a complaint with the jurisdictional police, which he did. Byappanahalli police registered an FIR but did not bring in the name of the persons involved in the gruesome act, or members of the temple trust in the accused column. Instead, they have mentioned 'unknown persons'," he alleged.

"It is said the goat's head was separated from the body, following the lethal bite. This is nothing but animal cruelty, hence we wanted police to take steps as per rules," stated Harish.

Animal rights activists now plan to write to the animal husbandry department, DG&IGP Praveen Sood, BBMP Chief Commissioner and Bengaluru City Police Commissioner to prevent animal sacrifice at temples and village festivals, and adhere to norms under the Karnataka Prevention of Animal Sacrifice Act 1959, Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Slaughter House) Rules 2020, and IPC Sec 429, as many temples at the panchayat level and municipal jurisdiction witness similar acts during summer.

YOUTH KILLED IN FIGHT OVER PARKING DISPUTE

Bengaluru: A 26-year-old youth was stabbed to death by his relatives for allegedly parking his car near his house. The incident took place in Anugondanahalli police station limits in Hoskote on Sunday. The victim Ismail Ali Khan was a resident of Medimallasandra in Hoskote. The police said Khan and his relative Syed Shah had a dispute over a piece of land in front of the former's house. At 4 pm on Sunday, Khan parked his car on the said land. At 8 pm, his mother called him and said the relatives were quarrelling with her over car parking. "When Khan returned, the relatives picked up a fight with them and one of the accused hit Khan with an iron rod in his head. HC sets 60-day timeline to decide on domestic row, maintenance cases

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

DIRECTIONS TO MAGISTRATES

Court will decide on applications filed under Section 12 within 60 days. If there is any deviation, the reasons have to be recorded in writing

The husband shall be granted four weeks to file his assets and liabilities statement for a decision on an application filed under Section 20 of the Act. If not filed within the time frame, court shall accept the application filed by the wife/ aggrieved person and pass appropriate orders

Objections, if any, to the application filed by the aggrieved person under Sections 18 and 19 by the opposite party, shall be filed within four weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, failing which, the court will be at liberty to pass appropriate orders

To achieve the timeline, court shall draw up and regulate its procedure in terms of its inherent power under Section 28(2)

TAKING serious note of the plight of a woman who did not get maintenance and other benefits for close to five years, due to a delay in disposal of the application filed before court after she moved out of the matrimonial house, the Karnataka High Court has set a timeline to address grievances of such victims. It will apply to courts handling cases arising out of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005.

Allowing a petition filed by a 28-year-old from Banashankari 3rd Stage in Bengaluru, with a direction to the magistrate to dispose of her 2018 application within four weeks, Justice M Nagaprasanna said that a woman who is a victim of domestic violence, knocking at the doors of the magistrate, seeking maintenance or shelter, will have to be addressed with immediacy. It is for this reason that the statute mandates that such applications have to be disposed of within 60 days, in terms of sub-section (5) of Section 12 of the Act, failing which, such cases would mushroom and defeat the very purpose of promulgation of the Act, the judge said.

"It is often said that 'justice delayed is justice denied...' Adherence to the timeline would be of paramount importance, as a remedy under Section 12 to an aggrieved person is imperative...," the court said, directing magistrates to decide applications filed by aggrieved persons within the time frame.

Allowing the complaint filed by the proprietor of Siri Marketing, the commission directed the bank to pay Rs 5 lakh for the loss that he is going to incur on the market price of the property, inconvenience and harassment caused, and Rs 20,000 for mental agony and Rs 10,000 for litigation expenses.

"The bank shall give an advertisement at its cost in two vernacular daily, stating the original sale deed hypothecation agreement, memorandum of deposit of title deed, lease-sale deed, and original sale deed have been lost while it was in the custody of the bank and the complainant can obtain a certified copy of those documents from the authorities concerned. Rahul tears into RSS, BJP, says he does not fear cops

@ Kozhikode

MAKING his first public appearance after a police team visited his New Delhi residence on Sunday, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi on Monday said he will not stop speaking against RSS no matter how many times the police are sent to his house.

"Sending police to my house or slapping cases on me won't stop me from speaking against RSS' ideology of hate and its assault on constitutional institutions of the country," Rahul said at a public function at Mukkam in Wayanad, his Lok Sabha constituency.

Flaying the BJP and Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Rahul said, "BJP, RSS and Modi are assaulting India by attacking its democratic structure and constitutional institutions. It (RSS) has forgotten that there are 140 crore people in the country and that it is not the nation."

He said there is a confusion in the minds of Modi, BJP and RSS that they themselves are India.

"The PM is one Indian citizen, not entire India, no matter how arrogant he is or what he thinks. There is no way that an attack on PM, the BJP or RSS is an attack on India. (However) By attacking independent institutions, they are attacking the country," the MP said, adding that he will not stop saying this. "Some people may be afraid of BJP and RSS, not me," Rahul said.

ED issues attachment order for Injaz properties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Directorate of Enforcement (ED) has issued a Provisional Attachment Order (PAO), attaching immovable properties of Injaz International, represented by its partners Misbahuddin S and Suhail Ahmed Shariff, worth Rs 20.16 crore under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 (PMLA), the ED stated in an official release on Monday. "The duo acquired proceeds of crime and layered the same in the form of various immovable properties," the release said.

The ED initiated an investigation on the basis of an FIR registered by Wilson Garden police against Injaz International and its associated group, under various sections of the Prize Chits & Money Circulation Schemes (Banning) Act, 1978, Indian Penal Code, 1860 and Chit Funds Act, 1982. "The proceeds of the crime, in this case, is Rs 80.99 crore," the Central agency added.

Investigation by ED revealed that Injaz International and its partners, with fraudulent intention, collected funds/deposits from a large number of investors during FY 2015 to 2017, by projecting unrealistic returns against their investments, and later duped them of such investments and never returned the hard-earned invested money of the common people.

GOVT NOT LISTENING TO STAKEHOLDERS, SAY PETITIONERS

HOWEVER, while the petitioners in the case comprise several school organisations, some schools for the assessments have hit out at the delays caused by the court case.

"Examinations are being held at every grade. If the government is coming forth to conduct this assessment, it does not make sense to go against it. The constant delays posed by the case will only cause confusion among children. The government has also been very clear on what will be included in the assessments and these are being reiterated in the Kalika Chetharike syllabus," said D Shashikumar, general secretary, Karnataka Associated Management of Schools (KAMS).

Meanwhile, the petitioners have maintained that the issue is being delayed due to the government's refusal to listen to the stakeholders.

"The syllabus given to private schools is not the same as what had been issued to government schools for the Kalika Chetharike programme. The government has not even consulted us on whether these assessments should take place. If a major decision like this is to be taken, it must be announced at the start of the academic year. In addition, if these assessments are not meant to detain students, we need to know more information on what quality analysis the government hopes to undertake on the learning of students," said Shashidhar L, general secretary, Recognised Unaided Private Schools Association (RUPSA)

Public Instruction Commissioner R Vishal said the examinations will go on as planned and whether there will be any changes is yet to be seen.

ODISHA GOVT STEPS IN TO REDUCE MATRIC DROPOUT RATES

Last week Odisha's School and Mass Education minister Samir Ranjan Dash announced that his department would go in for a new door-to-door survey to trace the Class X students who did not turn up on the first day of the board examination conducted by the state. The number of absentees hovered around 13,000, about 2.5% of approximately 5.41 lakh students who registered for the high school certificate (HSC) examination. The minister said the figure was not as alarming as it was made out to be and pointed to last year's annual state board test, which 45,000 students skipped. He also detailed the measures the government has been taking to successfully bring the dropouts back into the academic fold through various other platforms like open schooling and vocational education across the state.

However, concerns do linger if one goes by the survey under the Unified District Information System for Education Plus (UDISE+). The UDISE+ is the management information system of the Union Ministry of Education's Department of School Education and Literacy for the entire country. Its data suggests that the dropout rate in Class IX–X of secondary schools in Odisha stood at 27.3% against a national average of 12.6% in 2021–22. It marked a jump compared to the previous year's 16%. The UDISE data has been contested by the minister, who maintained that it does not consider students who go on to enrol themselves in various vocational institutions, polytechnics and open school systems. The UDISE data is divided into two categories: those dropping out after Class IX and going into Class X, and those transitioning from Class X to Class XI. The transition rate in Odisha stands at 49.9%.

Irrespective of the statistics, the Odisha government's plans to go in for the door-to-door survey are welcome. Still, it must go deeper to understand the serious impact of Covid-19 on the education sector, a pandemic that affected the lives and livelihoods of economically weaker sections in the state. Critical issues such as child marriage, labour and migration must be studied threadbare to ensure no student leaves the school education system because of economic and access reasons alone. If Odisha can show the way by implementing projects to transform thousands of high schools under its 5T Initiative, it can close the dropout chapter too.

PROMOTION, RELEGATION GOOD FOR INDIAN FOOTBALL

The Indian Super League (ISL) season drew to a close over the weekend, with ATK Mohun Bagan edging Bengaluru FC on penalties in the final held in Goa. It was a season of twists and turns, which gave the country a couple of new names to discuss ahead of the Asian Cup in early 2024. It had been that kind of a tournament where the end was not scripted in black and white but had its share of suspense, drama (marked by walkouts and refereeing controversies) and of course, some hype as well. Perhaps, the most significant of these names will be Tamil Nadu boy N Sivasakthi, who had a breakout season with Bengaluru FC, the club that had to claw back from the brink this time.

Looking ahead, the next season is supposed to be a landmark one for Indian football. Ever since the premier footballing event, ISL, was anointed as the country's top division over the I-League, playing in Indian football's highest tier has remained a pipe dream for all clubs who did not pay the franchise fee to Football Sports Development Limited, the body which operates the league. The ISL, so far, has been a closed league with no club getting relegated or promoted. The scenario was far from ideal for making it to the top as it motivates lesser clubs to produce talent and develop a fanbase. Otherwise, the attempt to popularise the game and take it to the grassroots might get hindered. The concept of promotion and relegation gives a different competitive edge to the leagues.

This has led to some amazing underdog stories across the world. Leicester City FC, who were champions of England in 2015, were playing in the country's third tier just seven years before. India, too, has seen such fairy tales. Aizawl FC won the I-League in 2017 after initially rising to national level by winning the second division a couple of seasons prior.

All that is supposed to change from next season. A roadmap charted by officials of the Asian Football Confederation a couple of years ago finally saw the ISL agree to the winner of the I-League promoted to their ranks. That is supposed to start from the 2023–24 season. This year, the I-League was won by Round-Glass Punjab FC. However, it is not yet certain if they will play in the ISL. One would hope that plans are not altered and the concept of promotion and relegation will once again return to Indian football.

QUICK TAKE

SYMBOLS OF A NEW REIGN

The UK plans to reintroduce its Crown Jewels as the symbol of conquest. In India, it rekindles the matter of Kohinoor's return. But there's a significant issue involved. The move coincides with the coronation of King Charles III. Would the new symbolism define what his era would mean for Britain? King George VI oversaw the liquidation of Britain's power after WWII. Queen Elizabeth's reign went through the process of decolonisation. The new king already watches his government's unease over immigration amid pending calls for independence from the kingdom's constituents, even as most Commonwealth nations prefer moving past the monarchy.

Rahul may pretend to forget his own party's dubious commitment to democracy, but he does not have a magic wand to induce collective amnesia among 1.4 bn people

THE FALLOUT OF RAHUL GANDHI'S INTERVENTION PLEA

A SURYA PRAKASH

Former Chairman of Prasar Bharati and scholar of democracy studies

SOURAV ROY

In several engagements that he had during his recent visit to the United Kingdom, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi repeatedly referred to the collapse of democracy in the country and virtually beseeched western democracies to intervene in India's internal affairs. His justification for what one may call foreign intervention is that India is the world's largest democracy and has an impact beyond the country's borders. Further, if India's democracy collapses, democracy will suffer a "fatal blow" across the globe.

Is it not shocking that the leader of India's Grand Old Party which fought against colonial oppression and for the country's freedom is now imploring Americans and Europeans to meddle in India's internal affairs, that too in the 75th year of India's Independence?

Equally shocking is the string of falsehoods that he has uttered during his interactions with academics, parliamentarians and media during that visit. Rahul Gandhi appears to be a congenital critic of the Sangh Parivar and Narendra Modi. As a result, a running theme in his speeches is his visceral hatred for Prime Minister Narendra Modi. This makes him say things that are often far from the truth.

Here are a couple of examples of his falsehoods: He says there was no debate on the Goods and Services Tax (GST). In case he does not know, the GST was first mooted in the 2006–07 budget by the government led by his party! Parliament approved GST through the Constitution 101st Amendment Act, 2016.

Further, the finance ministers of all states are members of the GST Council and it goes a long way in strengthening India's federal structure. Rahul Gandhi's statement about GST, therefore, smacks of dishonesty. Instead of running it down, he ought to have hailed it as an exemplary model of federalism and democracy.

Secondly, he says that the RSS is a secret society seeking to subvert democracy. It would be appropriate at this juncture to tell him that when his grandmother Indira Gandhi imposed a fascist regime in India in 1975–77, as many as 3,254 members of the RSS went to jail in defence of democracy. Also, material obtained by this writer from the National Archives in New Delhi shows that among political parties, the highest number of agitators against Indira Gandhi's dictatorship who were jailed (772) were from the Jana Sangh. All of them were incarcerated under the dreaded Maintenance of Internal Security Act. So, who are the fascists in India?

Thirdly, he claims that the opposition's voice is stifled in Parliament and the microphones are switched off when MPs criticise the government. This is absolutely baseless and in any case it does not lie in his mouth to talk of what happens in Parliament. According to PRS Legislative Research which tracks the working of MPs, Rahul Gandhi's attendance in the Winter session 2022 was a grand zero percent. It "improved" to 40% in the budget session 2023 and he spoke only once in 2022.

Fourthly, he claimed that his phone was being tapped by the Modi government and that "it was simply not happening when we were in power". This from a man who hails from a family that imposed a fascist regime in the country! Those who worked for the Intelligence Bureau when Indira Gandhi and Rajiv Gandhi were in power, including Maloy Krishna Dhar, provide us clinching evidence of telephone-tapping and other nefarious activities by those regimes.

But the worst lie that he uttered was what he said about Narendra Modi and the Sikhs. Pointing to an Indian Sikh gentleman in the audience in Cambridge University, he told him that Narendra Modi did not regard him (the Sikh) "as an Indian". He said that in Modi's eyes, the Sikh gentleman "is a second-class citizen". This is not only fallacious but smacks of treachery. It is an attempt to encourage fissiparous tendencies among sections of the population and deserves to be condemned in the most severe manner.

Rahul Gandhi may pretend to forget his own party's dubious commitment to democracy, but he does not have a magic wand to induce collective amnesia among 1.4 billion people. Here is a very brief list:

India's first prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, introduced the first amendment in the Constitution in 1951 to curtail freedom of expression guaranteed in Article 19(1)(a) by imposing "reasonable restrictions" on that freedom; Nehru, on the advice of then Congress President Indira Gandhi, displayed his aversion to the growth of other parties when he dismissed the Communist government in Kerala in 1959; the Nehru-Gandhis ranked first in the gross misuse of Article 356 to impose President's Rule in non-Congress states; Indira Gandhi turned a vibrant democracy into a dictatorship by imposing the dreaded Emergency in 1975, incarcerating all her political opponents, emasculating Parliament and the judiciary, and compulsorily sterilising the population, specially targeting the Muslim minority; and Rajiv Gandhi introduced the draconian Defamation Bill to stifle the media in 1988 after he found himself trapped in the Bofors bribery scandal. The list is endless. Therefore, it does not lie in the mouth of any leader of the Congress Party, and in particular, any member of the Nehru-Gandhi family to talk about the virtues of democracy.

Hearing Rahul Gandhi beseech other nations to interfere in India's internal affairs and "save" India's democracy, one is reminded of Dr B R Ambedkar's prescience. Many years ago, on November 25, 1949, to be precise—while summing up the debate on the Constitution, Dr Ambedkar cautioned the nation and successive generations of the consequences of infidelity. He said: "What perturbs me greatly is the fact that not only India has once before lost her independence, but she lost it by the infidelity and treachery of some of her own people. In the invasion of Sindh by Mahommed-Bin-Kasim, the military commanders of King Dahar accepted bribes from the agents of Mahommed-Bin-Kasim and refused to fight on the side of their King. It was Jaichand who invited Mahommed Gohri to invade India and fight against Prithvi Raj and promised him the help of himself and the Solanki Kings. When Shivaji was fighting for the liberation of Hindus, the other Maratha noblemen and the Rajput Kings were fighting the battle on the side of Moghul Emperors."

The Congress Party must silence this modern-day Jaichand if it ever wishes to win back peoples' support and confidence.

LEFT AS AN IMAGINATION IN THE POST-EMS ERA

J PRABHASH

Formerly Professor of Political Science at the University of Kerala

We live in a time when the reality is mistaken as fake and vice versa. One is reminded of a 1998 film, The Truman Show, directed by Peter Weir, in which the protagonist who lives in the US ultimately realises that what he believed to be real in his life was nothing but an elaborate reality TV show.

This summarises our predicament today as we fail to separate the real from the unreal and truth from the untruth. The Czech writer Milan Kundera once spoke about history as a clever divinity that could cheat us, misuse or play a joke on us.

In a sense, Kundera's reflection about history applies to contemporary Indian/Kerala politics, too, in the post-EMS era. Coming to Kerala, this need not be taken to mean that this twist in state politics is a byproduct of his absence or that his presence would have altered the reality.

That said, one thing remains, he would have at least engaged his party colleagues and the civil society in Kerala in a lively discussion about these changes. Whether he would have justified his party's changed position on various issues, including its attitude towards neoliberalism, is only a matter of conjecture. But the most important thing is to have an informed debate on socio-political developments, irrespective of the conclusions one may draw. For this makes politics an active laboratory of ideas.

E M Sankaran Namboodiripad, alias EMS, belonged to a generation who believed that politics per se was barren and, therefore, required to be nourished by ideas and culture.

Dialogue is the most important propeller which aids this process and thereby adds to the imagination of democracy. Except for the brief period he remained in office as the chief minister of Kerala, he spent the rest of his life reading, writing and speaking, i.e., articulating ideas and debating issues. In a sense, he measured out his life in words.

Though he believed in the role of ideas in social change, he also held the view that, left to themselves, ideas would perish in the tumult of everyday politics. They need to be seized by political forces (for him, the Communist Party), internalised, interpreted and implemented.

Further, socialism, to him, should begin in the head and then go over to the heart. He also created a sense of belonging and inclusion. While he disagreed with his political opponents, he conceded them some political space, respected them as individuals and valued their views.

To him, it was dialectics at its best. One can call this trust, mutual respect or democratic wisdom. But the fact remains that his politics was also transparent, like his life. In the past, if the Left, as an imagination, held high moral ground in Indian politics, it was partly due to the contributions made by leaders like EMS. They stood as a class apart through their ideological positions and personal probity. Not that they remained infallible, but their sincerity of purpose was unimpeachable.

> Politics has also become leader-centric to such an extent that parties have almost lost control over their governments, the leaders of which often pose themselves as infallible. This has dire consequences for inner-party democracy and, at a macro level, for constitutional governance

Time has changed, and so have politics and society. The era is post-truth, and politics is neoliberal. Therefore, it is natural that political idols of a past era are pushed to the rear and forgotten or reduced to mere metaphors. Take, for instance, Gandhi, who is reduced to a spectacle. And EMS? He is a picture radiating an innocent smile.

Priorities and perceptions of politics today are different. What matters is power, power without any instrumental values, i.e., power for the sake of it. Political parties are electoral machines rather than agents of transformation. In a situation like this, ideology has little relevance if, by ideology, one means a set of ideas which stand for social change.

Hence, depending on the demands of the situation, parties speak in a vocabulary that suits their ever-shifting interests. One is reminded of a statement by the Roman Emperor, Charles V. "I speak Spanish to God, Italian to women, French to men, and German to my horse," is what he said.

Exceptions apart, this is true of our parties as well. They seek to mobilise people by using all means at their disposal, even offering different promises to different groups though there is convergence on economic policies and issues. Allowing for some degree of differences in details, parties are pursuing right-wing policies. Some gallop towards it; others (the Left, for instance) drift towards it; some gaze leftward and move rightward; others look right and turn right; and others go right by glancing at the middle.

Politics has also become leader-centric to such an extent that parties have almost lost control over their governments, the leaders of which often pose themselves as infallible. This has dire consequences for inner-party democracy and, at a macro level, for constitutional governance.

Further, neoliberalism has reduced politics to a commodity that finds self-expression in advertisements and catchy slogans crafted by PR agencies. This, in turn, establishes the linkage between money and politics on a firm footing.

All these cumulatively constitute the greatest challenge for the organised Left in India. It's true that in the matter of public policies, the government it runs in Kerala has certain limitations when the Centre is steamrolling over the state governments by making a mockery of the federal framework.

This, however, does not absolve the Left of the lack of ideas and imagination it suffers from or the decreasing role of ideology and the culture of debate within it. This will have dire consequences for the Left as an electoral force and an imagination.

Manliness explained

Apropos of When the manliest of gods became a mother (Mar 20). The story is a very good choice in this male chauvinistic milieu where men have no idea what manliness involves. So enjoyable, well written and inspiring.

Indian culture

I read Renuka Narayanan's When the manliest of gods became a mother (Mar 20). I enjoy reading her stories. She could perhaps consider bringing out a book with all her columns: there is so much about Indian culture and religions we hardly know about.

Child custody

Apropos of Child custody row: Sagarika then, Dharna now (Mar 20). Tears rolled down my eyes as I read Brinda Karat's article. Even though babies are simply snatched away from their mother's lap in the name of foster care, no one cares about the effects of physical separation the mother is undergoing. We long for leaders like Sushma Swaraj, Manmohan Singh, etc. It will be a mark of good leadership if our PM starts a separate wing to "care for the foster care" in Indian embassies!

Human responsibility

Apropos of Tiger spotted in Palamu Reserve after 3 yrs (Mar 20). When species disappear or reduce, the ecosystems suffer. As humans, we should be considerate towards the flora and fauna and take the responsibility to protect them.

Khalistani elements

Apropos of Nipping the evil of Khalistan in the bud in Punjab (Mar 20). The authorities have done a good job in containing the Khalistan dreams of Amritpal Singh. Extra caution on the part of the government is needed to stem any tendency of terrorism in the name of Khalistan, as they are supported not only by disgruntled domestic elements, but also funded by people abroad to create chaos in India—all under the guise of supporting freedom of speech.

Helping farmers

Apropos of Farmers stare at huge losses due to rain (Mar 20). Although we cannot predict or control the weather, we can regulate the availability of storage space. Farmers should have access to storage facilities to avoid having their harvested crops flooded by rain. The government should introduce programmes to assist the farmers.

Setting state finances right is Cong govt's top priority: Sukhu

Himachal Pradesh has a debt of ₹75,000 cr, ₹1,000 cr arrears of OROP, but govt is determined to raise revenue from additional sources like water cess & liquor biz

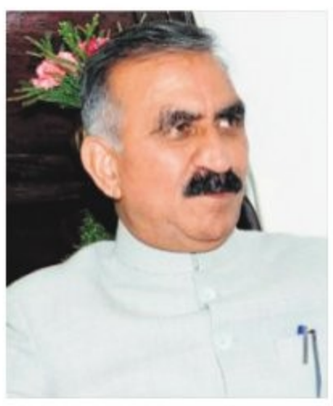
FIRMLY in his seat after well over three months in office in Himachal Pradesh, Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu has prioritised his tasks; the first is to keep the state finances under control. In an interview with Harpreet Bajwa, Sukhu explains the challenges and the way ahead for him.

Excerpts:

Your government will complete 100 days in the next few days. What have been your achievements?
First, the state has to get out of the financial crisis. From April 1, we are going to implement Old Pension Scheme (OPS) for government employees. We have to bring about a systematic change since we are not in the power to enjoy it. We have taken several decisions such as stopping exam paper leaks and dissolving the Himachal Pradesh Staff Selection Commission, we have made the tendering process transparent. We have also auctioned the retail liquor vends putting an end to the previous BJP government's policy of tender renewals. This has led to a revenue increase of 30%. Besides, we have set up a fund of ₹101 crore for 6,000 orphan children.

We will be developing Himachal as a model state for electric vehicles in the first phase. Our focus is to make Himachal a green energy state by March 31, 2026.

What are the top priorities of your government?
The first is to solve the economic crisis that the state is facing. The state has a debt burden of ₹75,000 crore. Then, we have ₹1,000 crore arrears of government employees and pensioners of the Sixth Pay Commission. Besides, the DA installment has to be given. Each Himachali owes ₹92,000 as the population of the state is 75 lakh. Our state is blessed with natural beauty, we have to enhance it and control pollution levels.



How much will the OPS implementation add to the state's financial burden?
The OPS will burden the state exchequer with ₹1,000 crore per annum.

Congress made 10 promises during the elections. One of them was OPS, which your government has fulfilled. What about other promises such as the one on the monthly payouts for women?
In the first phase, 2.31 lakh women will get ₹1,500 per month as promised. This payout will cost more than ₹400 crore per year to the government. The pension will be given in five phases. To fulfill other promises, we are working on infrastructure to generate funds.

Each Himachali owes ₹92,000 as the population of the state is 75 lakh. Our state is blessed with natural beauty, we have to enhance it and control pollution levels.
Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu, Himachal Pradesh CM

Unemployment is a major issue. How many jobs does your government plan to create in the first year?
In the private sector, 90,000 jobs and over 30,000 in the government sector. We are pushing for self-reliance and encouraging people to set up solar projects. The residents will be given a 40% subsidy for setting up solar plants on their own or on leased land. The state electricity board will buy power from these plants and youth will earn up to ₹15 lakh per year from a plant with a capacity of 250KW.

The state's debt is increasing...?
We are working on a war footing on the hydro energy front. We will go in for green hydrogen and set up the industry as per the natural environment of the state.

What are your plans to improve the apple economy of the state?
We are bringing in a horticulture policy for the first time since independence. We will be setting up cold and CA stores and distilleries for apples.

Are you going to press the Centre to announce a special status for the state?
Every time we cannot beg and do our politics. We'd like the state to stand on its own two feet. We are developing tourism in a big way; thus we have increased the size of our budget. We are expanding the Kangra airport. Heliports will be constructed in all district headquarters. In the solar sector, we will produce 200 MW in six months. We are going to introduce the water cess.

BJP claims you are into revenge politics...
There is no revenge politics. The previous BJP government opened over 500 institutions in the last six months of its tenure without allocating any budget and staff. Why didn't they introduce such schemes in the first year of their tenure?

How do you plan to tackle factionalism in your party?
There is no factionalism...We have only one faction that is Congress.

Japan commits $75bn in 7 yrs for infra across Indo-Pacific

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

JAPANESE Prime Minister Fumio Kishida on Monday said he was looking at revising the development charter and would look at supporting businesses and startups and infrastructure. "We will revise the development charter. Our new menu is that we will support startups. There will be a new attempt to generate synergy. We will mobilise $75 billion in public and private funds in the Indo-Pacific by 2030 for developing infrastructure," said PM Kishida in New Delhi on Monday.

Japan's Press Secretary, Hikariko ONO, who is accompanying Kishida to India, said this investment pledge has nothing to do with China and was being done only with the objective of economic growth of all countries in the Indo-Pacific and India would benefit as it had a huge requirement for enhancing infrastructure.

Prime Minister Kishida said India is an "indispensable" partner and Japan-India Special Strategic Global Partnership will be strengthened. "Japan in G7 and India under G20 are working together with ASEAN to bring about peace and stability in Free and Open Indo-Pacific (FOIP).

Japan and India should lead the world in the eve of FOIP, PM Kishida said, adding that there were four pillars of FOIP which included maintaining peace, dealing with new global issues in cooperation with Indo-Pacific countries, achieving global connectivity through various platforms, and ensuring the safety of the open seas and skies. Prime Minister Kishida reiterated Modi's phrase that 'this is no era for war'. Kishida vehemently criticised Russia and its role in the invasion of Ukraine and supported the principles of UN Charter.

He also spoke about development of unexploited areas of North East of India and Bangladesh for development. He also said that Japan would cooperate with India to promote joint training with the US and safe and stable use of sea and air which included sharing of maritime and satellite data. The visiting Prime Miniser also announced setting aside $100 million for the Japan-Asean Integration Fund. "I spoke to PM Kishida on India's G20 Presidency and how we would give a voice to the views of the Global South (Africa, Asia, Oceania and Latin America). We also discussed ways to further peace, stability and prosperity in the Indo-Pacific," said Modi. In 2022, a target of 5 trillion yen worth of Japanese investment was set for the next five years and good progress had been made in that direction, he added.

Modi accepts Japan's invite to G7 summit in May

Prime Minister Modi has accepted the Japanese PM's invite to attend the G7 Summit in Hiroshima in May this year and PM Kishida would return to India in September to attend the G20 Summit. Japan has also given the fourth tranche ($300 billion) for the development of the Bullet train project in India.

Digitising archives at NMML to begin soon

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE Nehru Memorial Museum and Library (NMML) has launched an ambitious project to digitise the research material in its possession.

The goal is to ensure the conversion of the entire India House Collection of the Library consisting of 40,000 books, reports, periodicals - around 70 lakh pages, 55 pages of archival documents including 30,000 microfilms and 57,000 microfiches; approximately 2.5 crore images to digital form.

The cost of the project is approximately ₹7 crore and the timeline for completion is approximately 12 months.

The digitised collection will then be made accessible worldwide through a state-of-the-art digital platform, Open Digital Library and Archives (ODLA).

It will allow modern and contemporary researchers to look for relevant documents for their research, preview them, and download them after paying service charges, said the officials of the culture ministry.

The NMML is an autonomous institution under the ministry. " The ODLA is likely to be developed by Tata Consultancy Services in collaboration with NMML. It is likely to become operational in the next six months," said the ministry. Users can read them on the computer and download on payment basis.

IPCC report confirms rising heat, emissions a threat to humanity

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

A report by Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC) has re-confirmed that rising temperatures and emissions are an imminent threat to humanity and urged the world to ramp up their efforts to uphold their commitment with the Paris Agreement. The Synthesis Report, which underlined the importance of inequity and justice in emissions, also provided many "effective" options to reduce greenhouse gas (GHG).

The report has integrated the main findings of the IPCC's Sixth Assessment Report, which evaluated science related to climate change, based on contributions from the three working groups. The report, approved during a week–long session in Interlaken (Switzerland), underscored the loss and damage issue. It stated that almost half of the world's population, which is around 3.3-3.6 billion, are in the planet's vulnerable region and will continue experiencing their ecosystem get damaged. Vulnerable communities who have historically contributed the least to climate change are being disproportionately affected.

"Almost half of the world's population are living in highly vulnerable regions were 15 times more likely to die from floods, droughts and storms between 2010-2020 than those living in regions with very low vulnerability," said Aditi Mukherji, one of the 93 authors of this Synthesis Report. It has underscored the unequal historical and present-day contributions of GHG emissions. The 10 per cent of households with the highest emissions per person contribute 34–45 per cent of all household emissions, while the bottom 50 per cent contribute 13–15 per cent, according to the report.

"The Synthesis Report endorses India's call for equity and climate justice," said Bhupendra Yadav, Union Minister of Environment, Forest and Climate Change.

The report gives a grim picture of the current state of planet. The global surface temperature has increased faster in five decades, with higher concentrations of GHGs such CO2, methane and nitrous oxide in the past million years.

Carbon dioxide (CO2) levels have increased by 47.3 per cent, reaching annual averages of 410 parts per million. Methane (CH4) is at 1,866 parts per billion, up by 157.8 per cent.

Of these activities, reliance on fossil fuels is the root cause of climate change in 2019, coal, oil and gas contributed to 80 per cent of all human-related CO2 emissions.

SC refuses to accept govt's sealed cover note on OROP dues

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

REFUSING to accept the sealed cover note filed by the Centre on OROP arrears case, Chief Justice of India (CJI) D Y Chandrachud on Monday said sealed covers are against the fundamental process of justice and there has to be transparency in court. Asking the Union as to what "secrecy" could be there, the CJI said, "I am personally averse to sealed covers. There has to be transparency in court. This is about implementing the orders. What can be the secrecy here? We want to put an end to the sealed cover business. If the SC follows it, high courts will also follow. We are understanding the difficulty of the government. But what we need is facts. Please tell us the plan of action."

Attorney General R Venkataramani appearing for the Ministry of Defence stated that the documents were "confidential" as they contained "issues of sensitivity" and pertained to "financial balancing of the whole economy". Although the Centre faced court's ire for submitting the note in sealed cover, it breathed a sigh of relief as the bench, also comprising Justices PS Narasimha and JB Pardiwala, granted leeway to clear OROP arrears to ex-servicemen in staggered payments from April 2023 till February 28, 2024.

Taking into consideration the Centre's submission that clearing payment of ₹28,000 crore "in one go" could have serious implications on defence management, the court granted the Centre the liberty to pay in instalments to 21 lakh eligible pensioners in various categories. It directed the government to clear arrears to around six lakh family pensioners and gallantry award winners by April 30, around four lakh pensioners above 70 years by June 30 and to rest 10-11 lakh pensioners in equal instalments on or before August 30, November 30 and February 28, 2024.

CJI during the hearing also expressed "displeasure" with regards to the unilateral letter issued by the defence ministry related to payment of OROP arrears. He said the national interest must not be lost sight of. "We were not pleased by their suo motu letter but we cannot lose sight of the national interest also," the CJI said.

The Indian Union Muslim League told the Supreme Court on Monday that the BJP should also be made a respondent in a plea seeking to bar political parties with religious names and symbols, as the BJP's symbol lotus is a "religious symbol". Plea on live-in registration dismissed

TERMING the plea seeking directions to the Centre to frame rules and guidelines for registration of live-in partnerships as "hare brained", the SC on Monday dismissed the same.

Reprimanding the petitioner's counsel for filing this plea, a bench of CJI DY Chandrachud said, "What is this? People come with anything here? We'll start imposing costs on such cases. Registration with whom? The Central government? What does the Central government has to do with it? You want every live-in relationship to be registered? Are you trying to foster care or security of these people or to prevent them? These are all harebrained ideas which you want the court to execute. Dismissed..."

Advocate Mamta Rani in her plea had argued that compulsory registration was necessary for protection of the members and the children born out of such relationships. ENS

Most Indians want dentists to display price list of procedures, says survey

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

THREE of four Indians surveyed on oral care want a mandatory price list by dentists of standard procedures like tooth filling and root canals to maintain transparency.

The survey, conducted by LocalCircles, India's leading community social media platform, found a massive disparity in treatment costs that varies among dentists, confusing patients.

The survey found that one in three Indians pay over ₹3,000 for a tooth filling, with prices ranging from ₹100-6,000 per tooth. Meanwhile, one in three patients paid over ₹10,000 for a root canal with price ranging between ₹500-15,000.

Over 36,000 people were surveyed in 317 Indian districts. While 62 per cent were men, 38 per cent were women. Around 41 per cent were from tier 1 cities, 33 per cent from tier 2 and 26 per cent from tier 3, 4 and rural districts. "The survey validates the price uncertainty and transparency issue raised by many people on LocalCircles when it comes to dental services in India," Sachin Taparia, Founder of LocalCircles, told this paper. "With such huge variations in prices of services like tooth filling and root canal treatment, people are keen that the government makes upfront price disclosure mandatory at least for commonly availed services. This will increase consumer trust," he added.

He said while dentists would find the government mandate uncomfortable, it will likely increase consumer confidence and encourage people to avail dental treatment as a prevention.

In a 1st, cops gun down bootlegger in 'dry' Bihar

RAMASHANKAR @Patna

BIHAR police's guns have finally started blazing against illicit liquor traders, who have virtually kept law enforcing agencies on tenterhook ever since prohibition was imposed in the state in April 2016.

Late on Sunday, a 25-year-old bootlegger was gunned down and three others were arrested following an encounter with police in Sitamarhi, close to India-Nepal border.

The deceased was later identified as Prince Kumar alias Nepali, a resident of Budhnagra under Nanpur police station in Sitamarhi district.

The incident took place around midnight when Prince Kumar started indiscriminate firing in a Dalit hamlet of Budhnagra village.

A police team reached the spot after hearing sounds of gunfire. Prince, who was hiding in a nearby chicken farm, started opening fire at police team.

The police personnel retaliated in self-defence, causing bullet injuries to the alleged bootlegger.

Locals said that two other associates of Prince also received gunshot injuries in exchange of fire but they managed to escape under the cover of darkness.

Sitamarhi superintendent of police Har Kishore Rai said a search operation has been launched following attack on police team.

He said while two cases were lodged against deceased in Muzaffarpur's Katra police station, one case was pending in Sitamarhi.

The cases in which Prince had been booked are related to violation of new Prohibition law. ADGP J S Gangwar said three arrested have been identified as Vishal Singh, Sonu Kumar and Rupesh Kumar.

Police go after docs protesting health bill

RAJESH ASNANI @Jaipur

THE police used force to disperse a group of private hospital operators and doctors who were protesting against the Right to Health Bill on Monday in Jaipur.

More than 2,400 private hospital operators and doctors from across the state had gathered in Jaipur to demonstrate against the proposed bill. The Rajasthan Right to Health Bill seeks to give the residents of the state the right to avail of free healthcare services from hospitals, clinics and laboratories. This will include private establishments also.

Private doctors and administrators had planned to march towards the Vidhan Sabha, but the police stopped them. The doctors then sat on a dharna on the road. The situation soon turned violent when the protestors began removing police barricades.

The police then resorted to lathicharge to disperse the crowd which had swelled to a few thousand by then. It caused injuries to some doctors. Protestors also alleged that the police misbehaved with female doctors.

BJP makes a clean sweep in co-op society polls in UP

Candidates backed by BJP outdo SP in its stronghold in central UP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Lucknow

THE ruling BJP has swept the elections of the primary cooperative credit societies in rural areas while winning around 80% posts of the cooperatives' chairman and vice-chairman. The elections took place on Sunday.

Taking the early lead, the BJP-supported candidates cornered a majority of positions of the primary agriculture credit societies in the state over which the main opposition Samajwadi Party had a strong grip till 2020. A total of 46,773 different cooperative societies will be constituted through the electoral process over the next few months.

On Sunday, the elections were held for two key posts – chairman and vice-chairman — of 7,148 societies. The BJP walked away with a victory in about 6,450 of them. The SP registered a win in over 500 societies while the rest went to independent candidates.

The victory of the ruling party assumes significance considering that most farmers are linked to the activities of rural societies which facilitate the distribution of fertilisers, seeds, loans and credits in the villages. Meanwhile, reports of protests after the announcement of the results surfaced from several districts, including Jalaun and Bareilly.

The results of the elections highlighted the fact that the ruling party seemed to have made forays into SP strongholds in central UP as the candidates associated with saffron camp won on more than 80% of the two key positions in the Kanpur division, which includes Etawah, Kannauj, Auraiya and Farrukhabad districts, the key constituencies of Yadav belt.

While in Badaun, BJP-backed candidates had a cent-per-cent strike rate and won all the 132 societies, in Shahjahanpur, which is the native district of state cooperative minister JPS Rathore, the party-backed candidates won 111 out of 115 societies that went to the polls. The election will continue till mid-June.

Rural delight for saffron camp

- The BJP win is significant as most farmers are linked to rural societies that facilitate distribution of fertilisers, seeds and loans
- In Lucknow's 76 of 81 primary co-op societies, BJP won in over 61

Guv addresses in Hindi, VPP MLAs walk out

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

THE members of Voice of the People's Party (VPP) in Meghalaya staged a walkout from the Assembly on the first day of the Budget session on Monday protesting Governor Phagu Chauhan's address in Hindi.

The VPP, which bagged four seats in the recent Assembly elections, alleged the Centre had sent the Hindi-speaking governor to Meghalaya as part of a "design" to impose Hindi on the people of the state. Seconds after Chauhan started reading out his written speech in Hindi, English copies of which were circulated to the members, VPP's Ardent Miller Basaiawmoit interrupted. He argued that Rule 28 of the Rules of Procedures and Conduct of Business of the House say that the business of the Assembly shall be transacted in English.

The Speaker requested the VPP legislator to sit down but he said, "We will not accept this. We will not allow Government to impose the language (Hindi) on us. We condemn the governor for addressing us in a language we don't understand."

ED grills Kavitha for 10 hours, to question her again today

AMIT MUKHERJEE @New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Monday questioned BRS leader K Kavitha for over 10 hours in connection with her alleged role in the multi-crore Delhi excise policy scam case. The Telangana MLC reached the ED office in Delhi around 10.30 am and left around 9.15 pm, waving a victory sign. She has been asked to appear again before the federal agency on Tuesday.

Kavitha, daughter of Telangana Chief Minister K Chandrashekar Rao, was first questioned in the case on March 11 for around nine hours, following which she was summoned again on March 16.

However, she skipped the deposition citing her pending plea before the Supreme Court against the ED action. The ED rejected her reason and directed her to depose on March 20, following which she appeared before the agency.

The apex court will hear Kavitha's petition on March 24. The ED has filed a caveat in the SC, requesting its submission be heard before passing any order on her petition.

BRS MLC K Kavitha arrives at the ED office in in New Delhi on Monday | PARVEEN NEGI

According to sources, the ED is questioning the 44-year-old Telangana politician over her alleged involvement in the Delhi liquor policy formulation, her association with other accused named in the chargesheet, and her link to the liquor cartel called the South Group, which is alleged to have been the biggest beneficiary of the Delhi excise policy. According to the chargesheet, the policy's terms were tweaked to benefit a select few liquor traders, who in turn, passed on their windfall gains to the Aam Aadmi Party.

Former Delhi deputy CM Manish Sisodia, who was the excise minister when the excise policy was formulated, endorsed and implemented, is currently in judicial custody after he was arrested by the ED on March 9.

In a related development, a Delhi court on Monday sent Hyderabad-based businessman Arun Ramachandran Pillai to judicial custody till April 3. Pillai, an alleged frontman of the South Group, was arrested in a money-laundering case related to the Delhi excise policy case. He is alleged to have close associations with Kavitha.

The ED wants to confront Kavitha with Pillai as well as other accused and witnesses in its custody.

RSS shakhas up by 337 since BJP's win in '22 Guj Assembly elections

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @Ahmedabad

RASHTRIYA Swayamsevak Sangh (RSS) has benefited from the Bharatiya Janta Party (BJP)'s historic victory in the Gujarat Assembly elections. According to Gujarat RSS data, there were 1,334 Sangh branches in the state in 2022, which increased to 1,671 in 2023, representing an increase of 337 branches. In Gujarat's 2022 elections, the BJP won a record-breaking 156 seats.

According to a press release from the Gujarat RSS, "While work has increased across the nation, work has also increased in Gujarat province. There were 1,334 Sangh Shakhas (branches) in the state in 2022, which climbed to 1,671 in 2023, which clearly indicates an increase of 334 branches."

Political analyst Dilip Patel said: "For years, Gujarat has been the Sangh's 'experimental school'. The Sangh has been very active in the Gujarat assembly elections, and when anyone wants a ticket in Gujarat, the Sangh oversees the entire process, from his background to the effect of giving him a ticket."

"Also, this time, if you look at B L Santosh, who comes from the Sangh and is the National General Secretary of the BJP, he has provided a successful operation from the process of issuing tickets to cutting the tickets of ministers. In short, people have started to feel that now if they want a ticket or want to win the election on BJP banner, they have to seek blessing from RSS, obviously this will affect the popularity of the Sangh and people will turn more towards the Sangh," he added.

Customer forced to pay ₹4 for carry bag wins ₹5k compensation

PRONAB MONDAL @Kolkata

A nearly four-year legal battle against a departmental store that charged a customer ₹4 for a carry bag ended two days ago when the consumer district redressal forum in Kolkata passed an order directing the store to pay ₹5,000 as compensation and ₹2,000 as expenses to the petitioner.

The forum in its order said the departmental store charging ₹4 for a carry bag from the petitioner was not legal.

In November 2019, Surajit Khanra visited the departmental store in Parnashree, Behala, in south Kolkata. When he turned up before the payment counter after shopping, he found ₹4 was added to his bill as the charge for a carry bag. Khanra objected as there was a logo of the departmental store on the carry bag which he did not want.

He asked for a bag without any logo. But the person allegedly did not pay any heed to the request. Khanra then decided to move the forum.

During the course of the hearing, Khanra said if customers do not want, no departmental store can force him or her to buy carry bags. At the same time, carry bag with a logo of product cannot be sold.

In reply, the representative of the departmental store said Khanra was not carrying any bag and he was told that the items that he purchased would be delivered to his address. Unhappy with the submission, the commission asked how could the departmental store promise to deliver the items which would have cost more than ₹4.

The store then replied that the state government imposed restrictions on the use of plastic bags which are not recyclable and this is why charges were applied that meet the government's guidelines.

The judges on the bench were not happy with the logic of the departmental store. One judge asked why the store authority did not introduce paper bags.

U'khand: CAG says ambulance & hearse were used for riverbed mining

NARENDRA SETHI @Dehradun

THE Uttarakhand Comptroller & Auditor General (CAG) has made sensational revelations in its report on illegal mining, which it says, has been carried out by "ambulances" and "hearse" vehicles from three rivers beds (Song, Dhakrani and Kulhal) of various districts adjacent to Himachal Pradesh and in Dehradun.

Along with this, the number of government vehicles have also been found "deployed" for thousands of outlet permits. The illegal mining has taken place between 2017-18 and 2020-21. The mining mafia has thus duped the state exchequer of crores of rupees by changing the number plates of vehicles by taking millions of tonnes of illegal mining material.

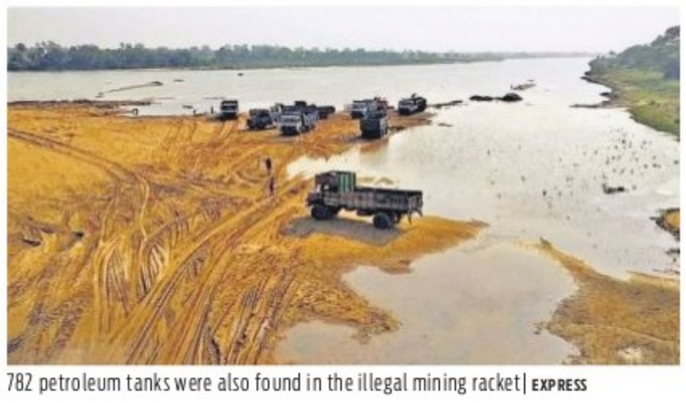
"Thousands of vehicles engaged in carrying out illegal mining turned out to be ambulances and non-commercial vehicles," it said.

According to the CAG report, 1,24,474 metric tonnes of mining material was transported from 2,969 government vehicles engaged in illegal mining.

The CAG report, which has surprised many officials and ministers, also revealed that "835 passenger vehicles carried 97 thousand metric tonnes and 2,500 taxi vehicles had 1.52 metric tonnes of mining material. There were more than 57 thousand vehicles that were not registered. Apart from this, about 2,500 tonnes of illegal mining has been ferried in ambulances, fire tenders, autopsy vehicles, road rollers, and X-ray van numbers.

Speaking to this paper, state Finance Minister Prem Chand Agarwal said, "After studying the CAG report in detail, the government will take the strictest action against the culprits involved in it. Any kind of negligence will not be spared."

The CAG report puts the number of such vehicles at 40. As many as 782 petroleum tanks were also found in the illegal mining racket.



782 petroleum tanks were also found in the illegal mining racket | EXPRESS

How the fraud came to light

- CAG examined vehicle numbers mentioned in challans along with data base of vehicles
- Out of 4.37 lakh vehicles, 1.18 lakh were matched by CAG. It found that out of 1.18 lakh vehicles, 0.43 lakh carried illegal mining material

Atiq's wife named first woman gangster in UP, 3 sons part of syndicate

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

IN another dubious distinction for gangster-turned-politician Atiq Ahmad, his wife Shaista Parveen is going to be registered as the first woman member of the gang allegedly run by her husband in police records.

The couple's three sons -- Ali, Umer and Asad – can also find place in the same list of the gang registered as 'IS-227' in police records since Mayawati-led BSP rule from 2007 to 2012.

Police sources said that it would probably be the first time in the criminal history of UP that a whole family of a muscleman-turned-politician would go down in police records as members of an interstate gang. Shaista, Atiq and their two sons are accused in the Umesh Pal murder case which took place on February 24. Shaista and Asad have been on the run since the day of the murder.

Umesh Pal was the prime witness in the 2005 murder of Raju Pal, an MLA who was shot dead months after winning the Allahabad (West) Assembly seat (now in Prayagraj) in his electoral debut by defeating former MP Atiq Ahmed's younger brother Khalid Azim.

While Atiq is lodged in Sabarmati jail in Gujarat, his two sons Umer and Ali are lodged in Lucknow jail and Naini central jail of Prayagraj respectively. "Shaista will be the first woman to be registered as a member of this gang in police records," said a police officer. Police sources said the investigations pointed at the active involvement of Shaista and her sons in criminal activities.

Shaista has four cases registered against her, including the murder of lawyer Umesh Pal whose two police security guards were killed in the shootout. She has been absconding and carries a reward of ₹25,000. Meanwhile, the Prayagraj district Administration on Monday resumed demolition of Mohammad Ghulam's house.

Pak police arrests Imran's nephew, more supporters

ISLAMABAD

Supporters of Imran Khan hold placards as they demonstrate in Washington | AFP

PAKISTAN police arrested Imran Khan's nephew and a number of his supporters on Monday for their alleged involvement in the attacks on the security personnel outside a court here over the weekend where the ousted premier arrived from Lahore to appear in the much-awaited hearing in a corruption case.

The raft of arrests was the latest amid the mounting cases filed against Khan, the chief of the main opposition party, Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI). Monday's arrests bring the total number of Imran's followers detained in Islamabad to 198 since Saturday.

Among those arrested also include Hassan Niazi, Khan's nephew. The details of the other arrests were not known immediately. His supporters threw firebombs and hurled stones at the officers as riot police wielded batons and fired tear gas.

More than 50 officers were injured and a police checkpoint, several cars and motorcycles were torched.

Lahore Police on Sunday booked Imran and over 1,000 PTI workers under terrorism charges in two cases. The number of cases against Imran has climbed up to 97. Police also claimed to have recovered rifles, Kalashnikovs, bullets, marbles and petrol bombs from his house during the search operation. Imran, 70, who arrived in the federal capital from Lahore on Saturday, appeared at the gates of the district court in the much-awaited corruption case. However, due to the violence outside the judicial complex, the judge allowed Imran to return home after signing a register. The former prime minister has been in the crosshairs for buying gifts, including an expensive Graff wristwatch he had received as the premier at a discounted price from the state depository called Toshakhana, and selling them for profit. Imran was disqualified by the Election Commission of Pakistan in October last year for not sharing details of the sales. PTI

KHALISTANI VANDALISM

UK Sikh community in shock over attack on Indian flag

LONDON

A day after pro-Khalistan protesters took down the Indian flag at Indian mission in London, Sikh community leaders in the UK expressed shock and disbelief over the "unacceptable" act.

In a joint statement issued from across the UK, British Sikh community leaders said: "Everyone has the right for peaceful protest, but the use of violence or threats against Indian High Commission staff and forcefully trying to remove Tiranga (Tricolour), the national flag of India, is not acceptable and we condemn these actions."

"Such actions cannot achieve anything apart from damaging UK & India ties and our community cohesion."

Jaswinder Kumar, President of the Sri Guru Ravidass Sabha Bedford, and Gurmail Singh, vice-president of the Ramgarhia Sikh Society Bedford were among those to issue similar condemnations.

British Sikh House of Lords peer, Lord Rami Ranger, said the Sikh community is in 'shock and disbelief' at how a handful of the misguided bunch can tarnish an illustrious and patriotic community.

"They have also shown total disrespect to Sikh Gurus who paid the supreme sacrifice for their Mother India," he said. Sunday's incident came after similar radical actions by Khalistan supporters in Canada and Australia.

On Wednesday, the Honorary Consulate of India in Australia's Brisbane city was forced to close down due to safety concerns after Khalistan supporters organised an unauthorised gathering and blocked the entry of the office. Several Hindu temples in Melbourne were vandalised by Khalistan supporters in recent months. Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese during his recent India visit assured his Indian counterpart Narendra Modi that Australia won't tolerate any extreme actions like attacks on religious places. Canada has also seen a rise in anti-India activities recently by Khalistan supporters who have vandalised some Hindu temples.

Xi visits Moscow, expected to push for Ukraine peace

Will discuss China's 12-point position paper on the war; ready to consider it, says Putin

MOSCOW

Russian President Vladimir Putin meets with China's President Xi Jinping at the Kremlin in Moscow on Monday | AFP

PRESIDENT Vladimir Putin told his Chinese counterpart Xi Jinping on Monday that Russia was open to discussing China's proposals to end the fighting in Ukraine at the start of high-stakes talks in the Kremlin.

"We are always open to negotiations," Putin told Xi, who was on his first visit to Moscow since the start of Russia's military intervention in Ukraine last year. "We will certainly discuss all these issues, including your initiatives which we treat with respect, of course," Putin said.

The summit between the Russian president and the Chinese leader comes as China seeks to portray itself as a neutral party in the Ukraine conflict.

But Washington has accused Beijing of mulling arms exports to Moscow -- claims China has vociferously denied.

Xi's three-day trip also serves as a show of support for internationally isolated Putin, just days after a war crimes tribunal issued a warrant for his arrest over accusation of unlawfully deporting Ukrainian children. Shortly after landing at Moscow's Vnukovo Airport, Xi said his visit would give "new momentum" to Chinese-Russian ties. He was greeted by Deputy Prime Minister Dmitry Chernyshenko on a red carpet as a military brass band played the countries' anthems, Russian state media showed.

During his initial meeting with Putin, Xi hailed "close ties" with Russia and the Russian leader said the two countries had "plenty of common objectives and tasks".

The two will continue talks on Tuesday. The two leaders are due to discuss China's 12-point position paper on the Ukraine conflict, which includes a call for dialogue and respect for all countries' territorial sovereignty. Putin has welcomed Beijing's statements on Ukraine as being indicative of a willingness to play a "constructive role" in ending the conflict. But Kyiv on Monday reiterated calls for Russia to withdraw its forces from Ukraine. "We expect Beijing to use its influence on Moscow to make it put an end to the aggressive war against Ukraine," Ukrainian foreign ministry spokesman Oleg Nikolenko said. A day before Xi's arrival, a defiant Putin went to the Russian-held Ukrainian city of Mariupol — his first visit to territory captured from Kyiv since Moscow's forces pushed across the border in February 2022.

Thailand PM dissolves parliament

BANGKOK

THAI Prime Minister Prayut Chan-O-Cha dissolved parliament on Monday, setting up a general election in May as the former coup leader seeks to extend army-backed rule.

The vote pits unpopular former army chief Prayut, who came to power in a 2014 putsch, against the daughter of billionaire former PM Thaksin Shinawatra, who still casts a shadow over the kingdom's political scene despite more than a decade in exile. The main opposition Pheu Thai group, fronted by Paetongtarn Shinawatra, is polling strongly but Thailand's junta-scripted 2017 constitution will make it hard for her to secure the top job.

A statement in the official Royal Gazette published on Monday announced the dissolution, and the Election Commission will confirm the date of the poll later, with May 7 or 14 tipped as most likely.

Macron's minority govt faces no-confidence vote

PARIS

FRENCH President Emmanuel Macron's government is set to face two no-confidence motions in parliament on Monday over an unpopular pension reform that has sparked violent protests and political uproar.

Macron's allies are in a minority in the lower house National Assembly, meaning they could be defeated if the opposition unites in sufficient numbers for one of the ballots, which are set for debate from 4 pm. A decision to force the pension legislation through the lower-house National Assembly without a vote last Thursday sparked protests over the weekend, calls for more strikes and outrage about a manoeuvre widely seen as undemocratic.

Bringing the government down was "the only way of stopping the social and political crisis in this country," Charles de Courson, the author of one of the two no-confidence votes and France's longest-serving MP, told France Inter radio on Monday. "If we continue like this, no one will control anything. That's what all the trade union leaders are telling us.. that they're seeing things becoming more radical," he said. Government insiders and observers have raised fears that France is again heading for another bout of violent anti-government protests, only a few years after the "Yellow Vest" movement shook Macron's government and the country. AFP

Sikh student assaulted in Canada; turban ripped off

TORONTO

IN an apparent hate crime, a 21-year-old Sikh student from India was attacked in Canada's British Columbia province by a group of unknown men who ripped off his turban and dragged him across the sidewalk by his hair, according to a media report.

Gagandeep Singh was assaulted when he was heading home on Friday night, CTV news reported.

Councillor Mohini Singh said she heard of the attack shortly after it happened and went to visit Gagandeep.

"I was horrified when I saw him. He could only speak in soft tones and he couldn't open his mouth,"' she told the news channel.

She said the young man's eyes were swollen shut and that he was obviously in significant pain. The councillor says she was told that Gagandeep was heading home around 10.30 pm after grocery shopping when he encountered a group of between 12 and 15 other young people on the bus. It was St Patrick's Day and Mohini Singh says a rowdy group was on the bus, throwing a wig around.

"They were harassing him and they threw the wig at him. He told them not to bother him or he'd call the police, and they continued to harass him," she said. Gagandeep got off the bus."They got off after him, waited for the bus to leave and then they swarmed him, they beat him in his face, in his ribs, arms, and legs and then proceeded to grab his turban, pull his hair and drag him," Mohini Singh said, adding that the group took the turban with them when they left. PTI

Funding issues force Adanis to delay petchem project

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

DELAY in financial closure has forced the Adani group to suspend work on the ₹ 34,900-crore petrochemical project in Ahmedabad.

Adani Group on Monday clarified it has decided to keep the major equipment procurement and site construction activities on hold as it is waiting for the financial closure of the Green PVC project of Mundra Petrochemicals (MPL). "The financial closure of the Green PVC project of MPL is pending with the financial institutions and it is in their active consideration," a spokesperson of the company said on Monday adding that it is hopeful to obtain financial closure for the project in next six months after which full-fledged procurement and construction activities at the site will commence.

However, the firm has said that it has decided to continue with the engineering design and other activities in an accelerated mode. It was reported by PTI on Sunday that the group has decided not to pursue the 1 million tonne per annum Green PVC project for the time being. The group has shot off mails to vendors and suppliers to suspend all activities on immediate basis. PTI had cited mails sent by the company to its vendors in which it has asked them to "suspend all activities of the scope of work and performance of all obligations" for Mundra Petrochem Ltd's Green PVC project till further notice. The management, it said, was "re-evaluating various project/s being implemented at group level in different business verticals. Based on future cash flow and finance, some of the project/s are being re-evaluated for its continuation and revision in timeline." The PVC unit was to have a production capacity of 2,000 KTPA (kilo tonne per annum) requiring 3.1 million tonne per annum (MTPA) of coal that was to be imported from Australia, Russia and other countries.

Amid crackdown, Vivo looks to 'restructure' top deck

Chinese smartphone maker to have Indian nationals at top management to escape regulatory scrutiny, according to sources

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

Under the lens of the country's investigating agencies, Chinese mobile manufacturer Vivo is looking to shed the taint by restructuring the top management, sources in the know told this newspaper. The main objective of the restructuring process is to get rid of Chinese nationals at the top.

Current chief executive officer Jerome Chen, say sources, may make way for Harinder Dahiya, who is the chief financial officer of the company. The company is also likely to 'reward' an ex-director of Vivo, Hemant Munjal who has been at the centre of Enforcement Directorate's Vivo money laundering investigation, with a cushy position in the company.

Sources said though many Chinese nationals associated with Vivo or its associated companies in India have left the country, recently one Chinese national was stopped at the airport from leaving the country.

According to the sources, Vivo would now have Indian nationals at the top level even if it would be run de facto by people sitting outside.

"With fewer Chinese in Vivo India, it is important to explore the restructuring of the business operations by the company to bypass the regulators. Vivo is now changing its working and replacing Chinese shareholdings in old companies in each state with Indian employees as dummy directors," a source told TNIE.

When contacted, Vivo spokesperson denied any knowledge of restricting in the company.

The Chinese smartphone maker has been under investigation by the Indian enforcement agencies over allegations of money laundering and tax evasion. The ED has alleged that Vivo, through a web of companies opened across India, has been able to remit ₹62,500 crore out of India, mainly to China. The remitted amount, according to ED is 50% of the total sales proceeds of the company.

The ED has recently charge sheeted 47 entities and individuals, who were part of the conspiracy to channel Vivo's money out of India.

Hemant Munjal and his chartered accountant brother Dimple Munjal are among those named in the charge sheet. An ex-director of Vivo, Hemant Munjal, according to the ED charge sheet, is highly suspected that he may be aware of the business activities of Vivo Mobile India. ED had recovered Rs 50 lakh from his brother's possession during the searches.

The Enforcement Directorate alleged in the charge sheet that Vivo engaged in money laundering and tax evasion by under-reporting the value of imported goods and making illegal payments to offshore entities. The next date of hearing is 28 March and ED is expected to file another supplementary charge sheet this time focusing on Indian masterminds behind Vivo's network of companies with Chinese partners.

Gold prices cross ₹60,000 mark to hit life-time high

SACHIN KUMAR @ Mumbai

GOLD prices touched life-time high on Monday, with yellow metal crossing ₹60,000 for the first time ever as a wave of banking crises shook global markets. Gold futures rose to ₹60,359 per 10 gram on the MCX, registering a gain of 1.8% on Monday. Investors rush to buy gold as they feared another global banking crisis after fall in banks in the US and the $ 3.25 billion rescue deal for Credit Suisse;

"WSJ reported in a new study, economists said they found 186 banks that may be prone to similar risks as SVB. This raises concerns of a financial contagion and a hard landing in the US, improving appeal for the yellow metal for its safe haven status. Extreme risk off sentiments and caution prevails in markets and gold is a major beneficiary of this crisis," said Ravindra V Rao, VP-Head Commodity Research, Kotak Securities. Gold has risen about 8% since the start of this year, mainly driven by global factors. Analysts expect the rally in gold prices to continue with prices likely to go up to ₹64,000 a 10 gram this year due to concerns of weaking global growth and fears of recession. "We anticipate a significant rise in price if gold closes over $2000 (spot), which could occur at levels of $2070 and $2185." said Rahul Kalantri, VP Commodities, Mehta Equities.

Banking crisis: Crude oil falls to 15-month low

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

The crude price in the international market fell to their lowest in 15 months due to fallout from banks in the US and Europe.

In the past one week, crude prices dipped more than 10% of their value.

Brent Crude Future, the benchmark of crude price in the international market fell to the lowest 2.8% to $70.90 a barrel while the US West Texas Intermediate crude was down 2.8% to $64.86. Later in the day, the price gained as Brent Crude was trading at $72.58 a barrel and US West Texas was trading at $66.23 per barrel. "Oil market continues to be volatile in light of geopolitical and now financial dynamics globally. In this context, it is expected that India's continuously proactive policy of G2G involvement across countries will help minimize domestic impact to some extent," said Gaurav Moda, Partner, Energy Sector Leader from EY India.

Brent and WTI earlier hit lows last registered in December 2021, with WTI sinking below $65 a barrel.

Amazon to fire 9K more employees in a few weeks

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

AMAZON on Monday said it will be laying off 9,000 more employees in the next few weeks -- mostly in AWS, PXT, Advertising and Twitch. This is the second round of layoff as in January 2023, the ecommerce company increased the number of job cuts from 10,000 in November 2022 to 18,000 globally. So far, the company has fired close to 1,000 employees in India.

Though the impact of the number of Indian employees is not yet known, it is said that this new layoff will also include Indian employees.

CEO Andy Jassy in a note to employees said, "Given the uncertain economy in which we reside, and the uncertainty that exists in the near future, we have chosen to be more streamlined in our costs and headcount. The overriding tenet of our annual planning this year was to be leaner while doing so in a way that enables us to still invest robustly in the key long-term customer experiences that we believe can meaningfully improve customers' lives and Amazon as a whole."

He said, "As the firm's internal businesses evaluated what customers most care about, they made re-prioritisation decisions that sometimes led to role reductions, sometimes led to moving people from one initiative to another, and sometimes led to new openings where we don't have right skills match from our existing team members."

"This initially led us to eliminate 18,000 positions (which we shared in January); and, as we completed the second phase of our planning this month, it led us to these additional 9,000 role reductions (though you will see limited hiring in some of our businesses in strategic areas where we've prioritized allocating more resources)," he added.

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE reforms taken by the government have reduced the size of bad loans of the public sector banks, said the Minister of State Finance, Bhagwat Karad on Monday. The Gross Non-Performing Assets (NPA) ratio has declined from the peak of 14.6% in March 2018 to 5.53% in December 2022, he told the Parliament.

"Government implemented a comprehensive 4R's strategy of Recognising NPAs transparently, Resolution and recovery, Recapitalising PSBs, and Reforms in the financial ecosystem," said Minister of State Finance, Bhagwat Karad in Parliament. "Major banking reforms undertaken by the Government over the last eight years addressed credit discipline, responsible lending and improved governance, besides adoption of technology, amalgamation of banks, and maintaining general confidence of bankers. As a result of implementation of Reforms, performance of PSBs has significantly improved," he said.

All Public Sector Banks (PSBs) are in profit with aggregate profit being ₹66,543 crore in 2021-22, and that further increased to ₹70,167 crore in first nine months of current financial year, Minister of State for Finance said in a written reply to Lok Sabha. At the same time, resilience has increased with provision coverage ratio of PSBs rising from 46% to 89.9% in December 2022, he said, adding capital adequacy ratio of PSBs improved significantly from 11.5% in March 2015 to 14.5% in December 2022. TCS CEO exit: 'Reason is internal discomfort with reorganisation'

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

WITH four years still left before his term ends, TCS CEO and MD Rajesh Gopinathan last week announced his resignation from the country's largest IT services behemoth. Though the next day after his resignation, at a press briefing, he said it is better to leave when everything is good and that 'if not now, will there be a better time', analysts said there is more to this than meets the eye.

Research teams from Everest Group have picked up both internal discomfort with the reorganisation as well as external confusion.

In April 2022, TCS launched a new operational structure under, which four business groups - acquisition, relationship incubation, enterprise growth and business transformation - were created. "Under the new structure, it is hard to find who is in charge and in some instances, with too many cooks in the kitchen, this is quite unlike the normal TCS interactions that are usually disciplined and on target," said Peter Bendor-Samuel, CEO of Everest Group.

That said, TCS posted good numbers and it seems out of character for them to make precipitous changes, he added.

Gopinathan, who led the IT services company as CEO for the past six years, added over $10 billion in incremental revenues and over $70 billion increase in market capitalisation. His exit also comes at a time when there is slow economic growth, geopolitical tensions and increased concerns about IT spends. "Given TCS' size, order book and exposure to long duration orders, and portfolio, it is well positioned to withstand the weakening macro environment and ride on the anticipated industry growth," said Motilal Oswal Financial Services. In recent months, both Tech Mahindra and Cognizant appointed new CEOs. When asked about it, an analyst said these changes come at a time of industry inflection.

"The IT industry is moving from the first phase of digital transformation with its post-pandemic final kick to a phase of operating in a mature digital world.," Samuel said.

Domestic oil exports earnings up 60% to $86 billion in Apr-Jan FY23

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

INDIA fetched $86 billion from export of petroleum products during April 2022 to February 2023, 60% more than last year.

The countries, which have imported most from India, are Netherland, the US, the UAE, Israel, Singapore, Turkey and South Africa. "While import of crude oil and petroleum products has cost $193 billion during April 2022 to February 2023, the export of petroleum products fetched $86 billion during the same period, which is 21.2% of the total commodity export of India," said Rameshwar Teli, Minister of State Petroleum and Natural Gas, in a written reply to Rajya Sabha.

As per the commerce ministry data, from April 2022 to January 2023, the Netherlands ($8.9 billion) the UAE ($6.6 billion), and the US ($4.8 billion) were the top buyers of petroleum products from India. Togo ($4.5 billion), Brazil ($3.9 billion), Singapore ($3.9 billion) and Turkey $2.9 billion are the other large importers. India imports 85% of its crude needs from 39 countries. However, it exports refined petroleum products including high-speed diesel, motor spirit, aviation turbine fuel, naphtha to different countries. In 2021-22, India exported oil worth $50.7 billion for the same period, and Singapore was the top buyer of India's petroleum products last year. In 2019, oil firms exported 65,685 TMT of $35.8 billion.

Meanwhile, India and China have been the largest buyers of Russian oil after Russia -Ukraine war broke out. As per energy tracker Vortexa, Russia provided 1.26 million barrels per day (bpd) of crude to India in January 2023. Russia, whose share in India's import basket was less than 1% until January 2022, had a 40% in February 2023.

Supreme Court paves way for 2nd round of auction for RCap

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

IN a big relief to debt-ridden Reliance Capital, the Supreme Court on Monday refused to stay the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) order on another round of auction for Reliance Capital undergoing insolvency process.

This development paved way for the Committee of Creditors (CoC) to hold second round of auction for RCap assets. The lenders are expected to hold the auction on March 29.

Torrent Group had filed a plea before the SC for an urgent hearing, as the CoC for the insolvent Reliance Capital was scheduled to hold the second round of bidding on that date.

In the first round of the challenge mechanism, Torrent had emerged as the highest bidder with a bid amount of ₹8,640 crore, while Hinduja Group firm IndusInd International Holdings (IIHL) was the second highest with ₹8,110 crore bid. The first round of the auction ran into a legal tangle after the IIHL made an all-cash bid of ₹9,000 crore to the lenders after the completion of the auction process. Torrent challenged the IIHL bid in the NCLT, though the firm itself revised its own bid of ₹8,640 crore by offering entire amount in cash upfront as against ₹3,750 crore offered in the auction. The NCLT ruled in favour of Torrent and stayed the second round of auction, but the RCap lenders challenged the NCLT decision in the appellate tribunal, which ruled in their favour and allowed them to go ahead with the second round of auction.

Perez leads Red Bull 1-2 in Saudi Arabian GP

Red Bull's Sergio Perez flexed his street circuit muscles with dramatic effect by storming to victory ahead of teammate Max Verstappen at the Saudi Arabian Grand Prix. While the top two were clear cut, the next two places remained in confusion with Fernando Alonso first stripped of third place and then reinstated in the early hours of Monday morning.

Lovlina Borgohain beat Vanessa Ortiz of Mexico on Monday | PARVEEN NEGI

Lovlina one hit away from medal

NEW DELHI: AS Lovlina Borgohain walked into the ring for the first time at the IBA Women's World Championships on Monday evening, there was much anticipation. It was India's last bout of the day. It had not been a great time for Lovlina after the 2020 Tokyo Olympic bronze in 2021, especially after changing her weight category. Lovlina lived up to her reputation to record an emphatic victory and advance to quarterfinals. Competing in the 75kg category for the first time in the marquee competition, Lovlina made her height-advantage count to keep her much-smaller opponent, Vanessa Ortiz of Mexico, at bay and pull off a win by unanimous (5-0) verdict. This is a vital win for Lovlina, who's still relatively new to the 75kg category at the elite level. "It's a bit difficult in 75kg as there are very strong boxers who have been competing at the worlds for a very long time," said Lovlina. Sakshi also advanced beating Zhazira Urabayeva of Uzbekistan. Preeti, however, lost to Jutamas Jitpong after review.

In 2023, 2019 question is back to 4

India wrestled with the question of No 4 before the last ODI World Cup & that same query may haunt them again

GOMESH S @ Chennai

THERE was an interesting moment during the post-match press conference after the India - England clash during the 2019 ODI World Cup. Rohit Sharma was asked by a reporter if he was surprised to see Rishabh Pant, Shikhar Dhawan's injury replacement, at No. 4 (an important position in the line-up) in his first WC match.

The centurion on that day took a pause and said, "Not really, because you all guys wanted Rishabh Pant to play right?," he had said. "You all guys where is Rishabh Pant? Where is Rishabh Pant? There he is at No. 4."

Although the then vice-captain had deflected the question in his typical candid manner, four years on, it still remains relevant. And this time, Sharma is the one who is at the helm, set to lead India into another ODI World Cup, this time at home.

In the two years leading up to the 2019 edition of the event, India had used as many as 11 batters at the aforementioned position with Ambati Rayudu playing the most (15) number of games. However, Rayudu was left out of the squad at the last moment with Shankar taking his spot. KL Rahul started at No. 4 before moving up when Dhawan got injured. It remained a flexible position where different batters came in based on match situations through the tournament before Pant was drafted in.

While the shuffling around hasn't been as drastic as what it was four years ago, there is a similar pattern in 2023 as well. Since September 2020, India have played seven batters at No. 4 in 41 games, with Shreyas Iyer topping the list (13 games). The wicketkeeper-batter whom Sharma spoke about on that evening in Birmingham is next on the list with nine games. At the moment, both of them are not available for selection. Iyer is out of action with the back injury and Pant is recovering from the car accident he suffered in December.

Rohit Sharma (L) & Rahul Dravid will have to figure out a No.4 before October

INDIA'S NO. 4 IN ODIs SINCE SEP 2020

Batter	Mat	Runs	AVG	SR
Iyer	13	407	40.70	91.05
Pant	9	340	42.50	105.59
Yadav	6	30	6	100
Rahul	3	157	78.50	96.91
Kishan	6	106	21.20	67.08
Pandey	3	74	24.66	82.22
Washington	1	11	11.00	57.89

Ishan Kishan was tried at that position against New Zealand in January 2023 before bringing in Suryakumar Yadav, the T20I No. 4 who has aced the shortest format in the last 12 months. The 360 degree batter hasn't left a stone unturned in T20s giving a dynamic look to the batting. His ability to take the attack to the bowlers and do it consistently over a period of time is what made Yadav stand out at the global stage. When he was inducted into the ODI format, the hopes of the team management was to replicate a similar approach in the middle-overs.

That said, the Mumbai batter hasn't been able to replicate the same success in the 50-over format yet. Two ducks in as many matches in the ongoing ODI series against Australia doesn't look good on him. Granted, he has been exposed to the new ball early, especially against Mitchell Starc, but it is expected of a No. 4 given the tendency of top-order collapses India have seen in crucial World Cup games over the years.

Every ODI game in the lead up to the marquee event this year will be about figuring out the team combination and their top six. While Pant and Iyer might still come back into the squad before the World Cup, the consistency Rahul has shown at No 5 leaves only one spot open. Pant might have an edge as a southpaw, but it is yet to be seen how that pans out.

Which is why, as the Men in Blue take on Australia in the third ODI in Chennai on Wednesday, all eyes will be on Yadav to see how he fares at the position. After all, as per the current schedule, India only have six bilateral ODIs and an Asia Cup before the World Cup.

Will Sharma and Co have a better answer for the No. 4 question come October?

ONE SIZE DOESN'T FIT ALL: EX-INDIA TRAINER

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

INDIAN cricket has known better times apropos fitness of key players. Both Jasprit Bumrah and Shreyas Iyer have been ruled out for an indefinite period of time. The former's injury is an additional concern as he has been away from competitive cricket for a good six months. This has of course invited a few stray comments from former cricketers, including the likes of Virender Sehwag who questioned the need of similar regimes for all players. In an interview with this daily, former India trainer, Ramji Srinivasan, pulls back the curtain.

On whether he agrees with Sehwag's assessment (sports-specific and weight-training)

Yes, he's spot on. As a strength and conditional coach, it's our duty to train the players for a particular sport and specific to skill and specialised to each individual. One size does not fit all for sure. Bespoke periodised regime is the key for success. I think many got it wrong on what he (Sehwag) meant (he claimed weight training is the issue behind some of the injuries). There is a huge difference between weight-lifting type of training and strength training. Weightlifting protocols are a different ball game, some exercise may cross over to strength training. Strength training is one component of fitness in any sport and its essential component for developing power, speed, agility etc. The ratio of strength training to other components of fitness need to carefully planned and executed or it can create unwanted niggles which can turn into serious injury. Monitoring the right periodised regimen with right form and load is paramount to peak at the right time. Many injuries happen due to overload of just one component of fitness.

On the issues currently ailing Bumrah and Iyer

To be honest I really don't know the reasons. It could be biomechanical issues or overloading or improper workload management or even improper recovery patterns or even wrong exercise regimen. Players get injured for many reasons. Cannot blame the players for erratic goof up by some support staff.

On possible solutions

There are many ways to skin a cat; one is to have bespoke training protocols according to the game/skill/fitness levels/ any injuries/format etc. Professional approach with current data collection with proper inference of the data and team work is most critical. Repetitive injuries are a serious worry. The concerned professionals should sort this out at the earliest. End of the day, the S&C coach has to take some responsibility for it.

On yo-yo tests

It's one of the tests. It absolutely is not the only protocol to determine players' overall fitness levels. It can serve as a marker for the players to know their aerobic fitness levels and can be a tool to guide them to improve their aerobic fitness. There are other serious and pertinent components of fitness that need to be addressed than just yo-yo. Many embark on 2 or 2.4 k time trails to check the running and recovery fitness of the players. The components of fitness has to be in certain ratios. The testing needs to be skill specific.

Boxing helped Lorna fight illness, poverty

ANMOL GURUNG @ New Delhi

IT will be an understatement to say that Lorna Kusa Simbi, a boxer from Kenya, has had a hard life. Born in the slums near Nairobi, the mother-of-two knows a thing or two about hardships. In a poverty-stricken neighbourhood, drug usage was rampant, especially in her area. From the ghettos to the boxing ring, it has been quite a journey for Lorna. Boxing gave her the ability to distance herself from all that's ill and gave direction and purpose to her life. The sport mended and healed her.

"It started as a therapy because I was sick. I was asthamatic. I started to manage my condition and eventually I started to like the game," she says. Coming from Korogocho, one of the largest slum neighbourhoods of Nairobi, she was always at a disadvantage. Given the struggles at her home then, she couldn't complete her schooling and had a daughter at a very young age. To add to her complications, she also discovered at a very young age (nine) that she was an asthma patient. After learning about her health, one of her coaches advised her to visit the gym. That was life-changing. "It has healed. Any time I train it goes. I hope everything goes away. It's just a condition, I try to manage it. I think it has gone away."

The sport has helped her come a long way but it's still a tough gig for the single mother, who also has a son. She has to juggle between boxing and managing her young family, which meant she has missed out on many competitions since she made her international debut (this competition) in 2010.

"I have been on and off for two years. I rested for two years and then I returned to the sport. If I continue training I know I can do better. I was away for eight years. Then I went off in 2019. I had some issues at home. I come from a very poor family. I have to struggle a lot and take care of my family."

She is not a champion inside the ring, but off it she tries to help her family. That lack of regular competition was evident when she took on Luisa Fernanda Cortes Vasquez of Colombia in the 70kg category in the ongoing IBA Women's World Championships in New Delhi. Despite throwing the kitchen sink, she lost the contest by 0-5 verdict.

"The match was okay. Despite my opponent being very tough, I managed to do okay. I just need to improve certain things. I'm sure I can do better in the next championships," Lorna, who was taking part for the third time in the championship, notes.

Monday was a bad day at the office but she walks away with respect. That is also one motivating factor for the 30-year-old, who had entered the New Delhi event as the No 8 seed. "I love boxing because it gives you some respect in the society. You gain some admiration. It's a good sport which helps you attain discipline. I haven't seen any boxer who's indisciplined. The sport has taught me a lot to be disciplined. How to cope with society."

Her love for sport runs so deep that she has named her seven-year-old son after boxing great Floyd Mayweather. Seeing her son's enthusiasm for sport, Lorna is hopeful that he can follow her footsteps and retain family legacy. "He's a boxer. He's showing a lot of promise. I have sparring videos of him. I hope he will follow my footsteps and take part in different competitions."Her compelling tale would have surely inspired many young women from her country by now.

WPL: Grace-ful play-off entry for Warriorz

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

SNEH Rana has just pulled out of her bowling run-up at the Brabourne Stadium in Mumbai on Monday. She turns to her right and has a wry laugh at Grace Harris who is well outside the crease at the non-striker's end. At that point, UP Warriorz were 74/3 in 8.4 overs, needing 105 runs in 68 balls in a must-win encounter against Gujarat Giants. The former has to chase it down to qualify while Giants required a massive victory to even keep the mathematical chances alive.

The way their batters came out all guns blazing at the start sent a clear message. Sophia Dunkley and Laura Wolvaardt started well before the stumble, but D Hemalatha (33-ball 57) and Ashleigh Gardner (39-ball 60) launched a counterattack that took them to 178/6. With the ball too, Giants had made an impact, setting up the chase for an interesting contest. And then, the Rana's candid moment happened.

The Giants skipper gave a warning to Harris, both had a laugh, and returned to the starting point of her run-up. In the context of the game, not just for the two teams but also for Royal Challengers Bangalore, it was a significant moment in the tournament. Had Rana taken off the bails, Harris would have been back in the pavilion. Instead, the Australian would go onto smash 72 runs from 41 balls, taking Warriorz home with some help from Sophie Ecclestone at the other end.

UP chased down 179 with three wickets to spare, ensuring their qualification for the play-offs. The top three teams were locked, ending the hopes of RCB and making their final match inconsequential.

Brief scores: GG 178/6 in 20 ovs (Gardner 60, Hemalatha 57; Gayakwad 2/39, Chopra 2/29) lost to UPW 181/7 in 19.5 ovs (McGrath 57, Harris 72; Garth 2/29); MI 109/8 in 20 ovs (Kapp 2/13, Shikha 2/21) lost to DC 110/1 in 9 ovs (Capsey 38 n.o, Lanning 32 n.o).

RCB look to finish on a high

With the three teams for the play-offs finalised, the last day of the league stage will come to an end with a double-header. A look...

KAUR VS MANDHANA

Harmanpreet Kaur had the last laugh in the previous encounter, but this time RCB will have nothing to lose. They will come out all guns blazing looking to end, what has been a rather disappointing campaign on a high. Results might not have gone their way, but RCB have shown a lot promise with Indian youngsters, especially someone like Shreyanka Patil stealing the show.

LANNING VS HEALY

With Delhi Capitals beating Mumbai Indians on Monday, they will have a chance to finish on the top of the table and qualify directly for the final. They will be up against UP Warriorz, who have gained some momentum on their way to the play-offs, on Tuesday. Australian captain versus her deputy should make for an interesting internal contest.

DOTTIN REFUTES GIANTS' STATEMENT

West Indies all-rounder Deandra Dottin, whom the Gujarat Giants replaced citing inadequate medical clearance, released a statement on Monday claiming that the franchise's reasons weren't entirely true. Recovering from abdominal pain, Dottin said she was advised to rest till February 13 and started training on February 14. She claimed that the franchise knew of this, and then insisted that she got herself assessed locally, in Canada, despite having a clearance from her treating surgeon. In a series of email correspondence that followed, Dottin claimed that she received an email from the Head of Adani Sportsline, "stating that they were unable to find me a timely appointment at a private hospital from their end and that they would, thus, formally be seeking to replace me in the League."

AGENCIES @ Thiruvananthapuram

STAR sprinter Hima Das won the 200m race quite comfortably in 23.79 seconds while long jumper Ancy Sojan shared the limelight with a best effort of 6.49m in the Indian Grand Prix-1 athletics event here on Monday. Assam's Hima beat Aishwarya Kailash Mishra (24.81) of Maharashtra and VK Vismaya (24.82) of Kerala to take the women's 200m gold at the Laxmibai National College of Physical Education here. Sojan, meanwhile, produced a series of leaps beyond 6.00m and won with a best effort of 6.49m, just past the 6.45m mark laid down as the Asian Games qualifying standard. The meet though received lukewarm response with very few top athletes competing in it. Many events had just three athletes competing.

Barcelona claim injury-time winner in Clasico

AFP @ Barcelona

BARCELONA snatched a 2-1 Clasico win over Real Madrid with Franck Kessie's late goal Sunday to move 12 points clear at the top of La Liga.

The victory dents Madrid's ambitions of retaining the title and leaves the Catalans close to lifting the trophy for the first time since 2019.

Carlo Ancelotti's Real took the lead through a Ronald Araujo own goal but Barcelona pulled level when Sergi Roberto tucked home just before half-time. Both sides had chances to win the game and Marco Asensio struck for Madrid, but the goal was ruled offside by VAR, before Alejandro Balde set up Kessie in the 92nd minute. The build-up to the match was overshadowed by Barcelona's corruption charge in the "Caso Negreira" refereeing scandal.

SPAIN'S Carlos Alcaraz swept past Daniil Medvedev 6-3, 6-2 to win the Indian Wells ATP Masters 1000 and secure his return to number one in the world.

US Open champion Alcaraz ended Medvedev's 19-match winning streak, denying him a fourth title in as many tournaments to ensure he will supplant Australian Open champion Novak Djokovic atop the rankings. "It feels amazing to lift the trophy here, to recover the No. 1," Alcaraz said. "I would say this has been the perfect tournament."

GAME ON

Ahead of the World Transplant Games 2023, two B'luru brothers share their preparation for the event in Australia

DESE GOWDA

IT was 2015, and the moment city-based radio personality Anil Srivatsa (55), had been preparing for the past 27 years had arrived. Amid trepidation and fear, Anil donated one of his kidneys to his elder brother and neurosurgeon Dr Arjun Srivatsa (56), who had been suffering from Chronic Kidney Disease (CKD) – an affliction that leads to gradual loss of kidney function. Now, eight years later, the brothers are prepping for the World Transplant Games to be held in Perth, Australia in early April.

The first time the duo participated in the games was in 2019 in Newcastle. This, four years after going under the knife. And much to their surprise, they took home gold medals in cricket ball throw and golf. "I had chosen the 100 metre sprint, one of the most physically-taxing events in the games. But I had prepared well and was confident. However, I was shocked to find out that there weren't any age limits, so I was thrashed by a 28 year old. Meanwhile, participants were required to sign up for two events each, and I had also chosen the cricket ball throw, almost as an afterthought. Yet I managed to secure gold with a world record of 54 metres," shares Anil.

Endorsed by the Olympic Association, the games are meant to normalise organ donation, with both donors and recipients from over 60 countries taking part in various categories of athletic events. Ahead of the 2023 edition of the games, Anil and Arjun are looking forward to defending their gold. "With golf, fitness is crucial. I've been practising and working out, but Australia is going to be tough, unlike the last time in England. They are a sporting country, with great infrastructure and good players. I look forward to keeping my gold medal, but it's definitely going to be much harder," says Arjun.

Having formerly served as the CEO of Kings XI Punjab, Anil has also become a leading voice post donating his kidney, advocating organ donation, undertaking various initiatives to raise awareness about the positives of donation. "People are afraid of organ donation and that fear allows their own family members, people, who they say they love, to die. That's unfortunate, because those deaths are easily preventable if not for the fear," he shares. "Eight years ago, I couldn't find any stories that could have helped alleviate my fears. And that's why I set out to start telling those stories and spread more awareness, because fear comes from an unanswered question. So if I can give those answers, and be that vehicle for people to look at and say, 'Hey, this guy is living his life, and seems like he's a normal guy', then it may not seem so scary."

Just six months after the transplant, the brothers undertook an ambitious 'adventure', cycling through mountainous terrain in Spain to normalise organ donation. The following year, Anil journeyed from Bengaluru to Scotland, giving lectures and sharing his personal experiences to raise awareness. Having reached over 1.5 lakh people in 57 countries, Anil hopes to keep going as long as possible and eventually reach over a million people across the world. "My journey was like that of Forrest Gump, but I drove instead of running. I found that I could reach smaller communities that way," he concludes.

Lens on cinema

The Bangalore International Film Festival is gearing up for the 14th edition between March 23 and 30; over 200 movies from Senegal, Iran, South Korea and Russia, along with other regional cinema, will be screened

MONIKA MONALISA

MOVIE buffs can gear up as the city prepares for its annual film festival, the Bangalore International Film Festival (BIFFes). In its 14th edition, the festival will be showcasing more than 250 films, which will be screened on 11 screens at Orion Mall in Rajajinagar, from March 23-30.

One of the highlights of this edition is a masterclass by V Vijayendra, screenplay writer of Baahubali and Kantara fame. Movies from various countries like France, Senegal, Iran, South Korea and Russia will be screened. Oscar-winning movies like The Whale and Everything Everywhere All At Once are also going to screened. The festival will see various competitions being held in various categories like Cinema of the World, Asian Cinema, Indian Cinema and Kannada Cinema.

This will be the first festival that Ashok Kashyap, who was recently appointed as the chairman of Karnataka Chalanachitra Academy, is managing. It will also see a centenary celebration of Dada Saheb Award-winning cinematographer V K Murthy, who has worked on classics like Pyaasa, Kaagez ke Phool, Chaudhubin ka Chand. "We are celebrating 100 years of cinematographer VK Murthy. He was one of the few cinematographers who received the Dada Saheb Phalke award. So we have some of his classics lined up," says Kashyap, who has been a cinematographer in the Kannada film industry for over two decades.

According to Kashyap, this year they have tried to focus on throwing spotlight on regional cinema, especially Kannada classics. "We are also showing some popular cinema of 2022 like Gaalipata 2," says Kashyap.

To make things easily accessible, different passes are available digitally. "This year we have gone digital. Tickets can be booked on the phone," says Kashyap, adding that the Chamber of Commerce, Suchitra Film Academy and Chalanchitra Academy have taken the charge of the distribution.

MANDALA MUDRA

(A CIRCLE UNIVERSE GESTURE)

It is a complex hasta mudra (hand gesture) used primarily in conjunction with Buddhist prayers and chants, although it may be used in yoga practice, particularly to aid meditation. This is a gesture that can be used to represent the universe.

STEPS

- Perform this while you are seated in any meditative posture, as this Mudra is very complex and needs to have more attention.
- Sit in Vajrasana (Thunderbolt Pose) or Lotus Posture (Padmasana).
- Place your hands gently on your knees while your palms should be relaxed and facing upward towards the sky.
- Now, take a deep breath in and relax completely. Keep your neck and spine upright throughout the practice to avoid aches and pains.
- Now bring your hands close to each other and intertwine them. Then, slowly point your ring fingers upwards. Gradually join the tip of your thumbs on the base of your little fingers. Lock the middle fingers with the opposite index fingers.
- Close your eyes.
- Practise it with deep breathing.
- You can perform this Mudra while practising different forms of meditation and pranayama.
- Minimum of 10-20 minutes is recommended.

BENEFITS

- It helps to increase concentration.
- Helps in getting rid of evil thoughts and emotions. Brings spirituality and intuition.
- Replaces negative thoughts and feelings with positive ones.
- It brings calmness and relaxes the mind.
- The upward-pointed ring fingers symbolise Mount Meru. Practising this brings Meru calmness, stillness, and strength.
- It brings cosmic energies into our bodies.
- Practise it, if you are looking to follow a spiritual path in your life.
- You can practise this, if you are open to receiving cosmic energies.
- Practise it between 4 am and 6 am to get the most effective outcomes. You can also do it later in the evening.
- It's up to you to complete it in one stretch or two threes that last between 5 and 10 minutes. Practise for at least 20 minutes.

LIMITATIONS

Make sure that you are not putting excessive pressure on your fingers.

Practise it in meditative postures to gain maximum benefits.

Make sure to remain active throughout the day and don't stay in a single place for too long.

Keep your neck and spine erect throughout the practise.

As our city's culinary landscape evolves, several restaurants have launched exciting new menus. Let us explore what's cooking at these places in namma Bengaluru

NEW MENUS, NEW FLAVOURS

ASLAM GAFOOR

(The writer is a Bengaluru-based hospitality professional, food lover, and travel enthusiast)

SPECIALITY Bengali restaurant Esplanade opens its door to its first-ever Niramish 'vegetarian' food festival. Bengali food is renowned for its plethora of tastes, from fiery fish curries to robust beef stews. A lesser-known component of Bengali cuisine features equally delightful and gratifying vegetarian dishes that are enjoyed in households around the region on special occasions and festivals. From treats like chalkumror bora (ash gourd fritter with delicate poppy seeds and coconut paste), chanar paturi (banana leaf wrapped steamed homemade cheese in mustard paste), mochar dhokar dalna (banana floret dumpling), stuffed pea paratha, chanar pulao (cottage cheese pulao) to desserts like the baked rasgulla and the quintessential mishti doi. All of these and more are available during the ongoing vegetarian festival at Esplanade through March.

Everyday bar Suzy Q by 1522 brings The Bucket List, a menu of delectable tapas and beverages from all around the world. This celebration of bite-sized fare includes Mexican verduras taquitos and crunchy mini tacos, Spanish empanadillas gallegas, and creamy callaloo pilau jerk chicken balls from the Caribbean islands. Exotic delicacies from distant Pacific islands are included, including raspberry and brandy-glazed pork belly, Egyptian king crab koshari, Middle Eastern Dujajat fatayer, and even an incredibly flavourful and aromatic Turkish lamb lahmajun. The handcrafted cocktails here also exude an international vibe with the inclusion of herbs, teas, and spices from Spain, Turkey, France, and Mexico as well as specially created syrups, botanicals, fresh fruits, berries, and garnishes. The Bucket List menu is available at Suzy Q throughout the month of March.

The biryani at Dindigul Thalappakatti is legendary. Since the debut of the first Dindigul location in 1957, the business has grown into a prosperous franchise with eateries spread throughout India and the world. In addition to the mouthwatering biryanis, main dishes and starters, the restaurant team has curated an eclectic evening menu with dishes that are common in South Indian kitchens and staples to most households. The classic combo meals on the limited-edition menu are Aatukalpaya soup with veetu dosai, nattu kozhi idicha varuval with parotta, Madurai nenjucurry chops kulambu with plain dosai, and chicken leg ghee roast with idiappam. A Madurai jigarthanda cooler, special falooda, or a hot gulab jamun dessert can be savoured to cap off this hearty dinner.

Trendy restaurant Farzi Café has a new menu with delectable flavours and a touch of illusion, coupled with the science of molecular gastronomy. With a focus on bringing Indian cuisine back 'in-vogue', the innovative menu features dishes like the tomato mozzarella samosa with imli chaat, dahi puchka shots with angoor chutney, ambarsari chicken sliders with hot garlic sauce, bhetki paturi with gondhoraj ghee rice, and sabudana kheer that are not only aesthetically pleasing but also pack a tasty punch.

For those who like seafood, we suggest Neer located at the Hilton Bengaluru Embassy Manyata Business Park which offers coastal cuisine in a pleasant al-fresco setting. The new menu explores the regional specialities that are enjoyed along the shores of South India, notably Karnataka, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh, and Tamil Nadu. From the a-la-carte and set menu options, some of the fresh and flavourful traditional foods to savour include the vazhappu vada chat fried banana flower fritters, the kal meen varuthathu skillet-fried seer fish, the chicken ghee roast, the Mangalorean prawn curry, and the errachi nikavu korma tenderloin stew.

In addition to parathas, sannas, and appams, the menu also includes rice dishes like the nei chooru, Malanad vegetable biryani, and Kozhikode mutton biryani, as well as desserts like the kopra neer payasam, pazham pradhamam with rice flakes and jaggery, and panikkul with mango, soft coconut, and filter coffee.

LET THE RIGHT CANDIDATE SHOW UP

IT'S a season of freebies and money offerings. Perhaps this is the only time when roads are spruced up overnight, they suddenly begin to look broader, cleaner, clearer and tarred, at least on the surface; water and power shortage is minimised, garbage is cleared the first thing in the morning and netas come calling with folded hands with promises they recited five years ago with the same devotion and level of honesty.

Outside, their cronies bring the skies down and confuse the avian creatures with high octane sloganeering, frenetic dancing to manic drum beats and high-pitched songs. Indians are a seasoned lot when it comes to elections and the paraphernalia including the acrobatics and lies of our netas.

This year there has been a lot of buzz around 'big' freebies like TV sets and washing machines being promised in some slums. My house helps form the core team of my Intelligence network and through them I get every information unfiltered. On the breakfast table my cook, while pouring the dosae batter on the griddle, told me about the new TV sets being promised to her neighbours and complained that she was left out because her house was locked. I promised to give her leave with stern advice to not sell her vote. "Find out who has worked in the last five years, addressed your problems and issues and vote for him," I offered my unsolicited advice to waxed ears. She returned the next day beaming that her name had been noted on the parchi (note) for the new TV set. "Every one has a TV set in their house. Now they will have one more," she said smilingly. Needless to say, my jaw fell open and refused to get back for some time until a fly, which was passing by, decided to check it out.

The same day while standing outside my house waiting for a cab to cart me to office, I saw some women walking down the road, lost in a deep conversation; the type people have when they meet their own. What caught my attention was the boxes that the women were carrying tucked safely under their arms. The rectangular boxes had the face of an MLA printed across. I felt the picture of the politician was bigger than the box and threatened to spill out if the women squeezed the boxes a little more. They spoke loudly about the queue at the politician's house and how they juggled their way through the labyrinth to get their freebie in between guffaws and snorts. I was curious and stopped them to ask what was inside the box. "Pressure cooker," said one of them. Just then the cab driver decided to honk in my ears to announce his arrival. I left the conversation even before it could take off and packed myself inside the cab. The next day, ritualistically, I stood out on the road and struck a conversation with the security and some others in the group. They were having animated discussions about new TV sets and parchi. I had eavesdropped enough to understand that they were talking about some TV sets as freebies. I nosed dived into their chat and asked about the TV and the cooker and before I knew it some of them mentioned that someone from the rival party had assured them of washing machines. They said that the nature of freebies was commensurate with the number of voters in the family.

ILLUSTRATION: EXPRESS

I was shocked at the rapid pace of pecuniary progress of our netas and political parties. Earlier a biryani, ₹200 per adult and a bottle of alcohol for the male was the maximum inducement. It's not just about the voters, politicians seeking tickets claim that elections have become extremely "unaffordable." "The amount of money involved in getting a ticket and contesting elections is beyond our reach," said a ticket aspirant of a party.

Elections are the backbone of a democracy. How difficult is it becoming for the right candidates to contest and win? How difficult is it for people to not be gullible and fall prey to material offerings by the greedy netas, who turn up once in five years and disappear once they win to fill their personal coffers? How difficult is it to rise above every consideration and vote for the candidate based on their performance in the last five years? The power of one vote is immense.

Let us not squander it.
